

Jan. 17, 2009 Daily News

Saturday, 17 January 2009

Last Updated Saturday, 17 January 2009

MTNL to Commercially Launch 3G Services this Month

Techtree.com - Mumbai, India

MTNL will rely on its IPTV providers to give it content and the company may tie up with other content providers in due course of time, he added. ...

YouTube coming into your living room

Daily Contributor - San Pedro, Laguna, Philippines

Samsung: Samsung launched their IPTV device which supports YouTube (currently only available in South Korea) in early May. TiVo: Announced that YouTube ...

MTNL to launch 3G services in Mumbai in February

Smash Hits - India

... entered into any tie-up with content providers. 'Currently, our IPTV providers give us content, going forward we may tie up with other firms,' Sinha said.

Actus Digital to set up service subsidiary in India

Hindu, India - 15 hours ago

To top it all, there would be satellite, DTH (direct-to-home), cable, IPTV (Internet protocol TV), mobile and Internet only channels also. ... NTT Electronics to Exhibit New Products and Technologies at "IBC ...

PressReleasePoint (press release), India - 19 hours ago

Excellent for high-quality HDTV distribution over IPTV, CATV or satellite with its real-time transcoding of MPEG-2 HDTV to highly compressed AVC/H.264. ..

Tiscali UK Cuts Broadband TV Support Staff

ISPReview UK - UK

Tiscali informs us that they have just completed the major platform migration of original Homechoice (IPTV) customers onto Tiscali operational and billing ...

More IPTV for ex-Yugoslavia

Broadband TV News - London, UK

By Chris Dziadul | January 18, 2009 | 05:47 UK Bosnia & Herzegovina (B&H) will see the launch of an IPTV service in the second quarter of this year. ...