

Jan. 27, 2009 Daily News

Tuesday, 27 January 2009

Last Updated Tuesday, 27 January 2009

Worldwide IPTV subscribers reach 16 million

Broadband TV News - London,UK

By Robert Briel | January 27, 2009 | 22:40 UK During the third quarter of 2008, the total number of IPTV subscribers grew 10% quarter-on-quarter to over 16 ...

Cabletime to promote IPTV at ISE

AV Interactive - UK

The MediaStar Evolution HD IPTV Receiver (part 780) and the Evolution HD/SD digital signage media player (part 780/8M) deliver video and digital signage ...

Verizon FiOS Picking Up Speed: Landline Losses Continue

GigaOm - San Francisco,CA,USA

In contrast, AT&T is hoping to have 1 million subscribers to its rival IPTV offering, U-verse, by the end of the year. On the data side, Verizon said 282000 ...

Uruguay's Antel prepares to launch IPTV

IPTV News - UK

Uruguayan state-owned telco Antel is preparing to launch IPTV services in the country, according to reports in local newspaper Ultimas Noticias, ...

Australia's myKP to trial IPTV

IPTV News - UK

Australian ISP myKP, based in Sydney, plans to start trialling IPTV services, according to reports in local news portal IT News, quoting company director ...

IPTV Changing Lifestyles of TV Viewers

T-DÄ,^ - South Korea

By Han Sang-hee Local Internet protocol television (IPTV) is expected to change lives to the fullest, according to IPTV operators KT, SK Broadband and LG ...

3-D, IPTV Dominate CES Future Tech

Consumer Electronics Net - Newport Beach,CA,USA

LG Electronics underscored its recent decision to expand its IPTV systems in flat-panel TVs and Blu-ray Disc players by announcing Yahoo! in addition to ...

GDT Shows GE-Branded TV Line

Consumer Electronics Net - Newport Beach,CA,USA

In subsequent years, the company plans to transition in TVs with built-in IPTV functionality that might be able to leverage some of the content and services ..

