

Feb. 8, 2009 Daily News

Sunday, 08 February 2009

Last Updated Sunday, 08 February 2009

Tech Focus

Network Computing - Mumbai, Maharashtra, India

Further, applications such as IPTV which have been languishing can now take off with the help of WiMAX. In the past, the high amount of bandwidth required ...

Omnibus At NAB 2009 broadcastbuyer.tv (press release) - London, UK

... a wide array of operating environments "ranging from mobile to IPTV and from centralized multi-channel operations through to single-channel stations. ...

NETIA At NAB 2009 broadcastbuyer.tv (press release) - London, UK

Manreo also supports automated transcoding and publishing of media and metadata to the Internet, VOD, mobile services, and IPTV. ...

Strategy & Technology (S&T) At NAB 2009 broadcastbuyer.tv (press release) - London, UK

RedKey2 also supports the Interaction Channel IP connectivity to enable hybrid broadcast/IPTV receivers. S&T will be showing a comprehensive, ...

IPTV "to grow three-fold"

about-electronics.eu - UK

Rapid TV News: "Not even a global financial meltdown can stop IPTV," states research group In-Stat, boldly predicting that by the end of 2012, ...

Sci Fi, Universal On Now TV

Asia Media Journal - Hong Kong

A partnership with now TV is valuable in the region given their track record since the launch of their IPTV platform. We look forward to a long and fruitful ...

Love is not always for keeps

Business Mirror - Philippines

... to reach around 2.5 million viewers and will potentially be carried on the largest local DTH and mobile platforms as well as major IPTV and cable operators.

Middle East telcos perfectly placed for more broadband bundling ...

Business Intelligence Middle East (press release) - United Arab Emirates

Delta Partners, the largest telecom advisory and investment firm operating in high-growth markets, says IPTV. Mobile TV and multiplay will increasingly form ...

LCD TV is becoming high integrated and slim

- South Korea

Nowadays, TV is basically slim and has functions accessing to external IT devices as well as to digital, cable and terrestrial IPTV. ...