

May 19, 2009 Daily News

Tuesday, 19 May 2009

Last Updated Tuesday, 19 May 2009

Clearleap in VOD Deals with Next New Networks, Revision3, blip.tv

InteractiveTV Today [itvt] - San Francisco,CA,USA

... will result in the three content providers' programming being available to viewers "soon" on their cable, satellite or IPTV providers' VOD platforms. ...

SeaChange To Highlight Asian Market Success, Demonstrate VOD And ...

NewsBlaze - Folsom,CA,USA

"Our years of experience and commitment to the special requirements across the region enable us to continue to help operators innovate with IPTV, ...

Rural IPTV outlook might be improving

FierceIPTV - Washington,DC,USA

During 2008 economic conditions and overall timing seemed stacked against the likelihood of rural telcos getting more aggressive with IPTV deployments. ...

Technology Expert Predicts Predominance Of IPTV

4RFV - Belfast,Northern Ireland,UK

Within ten years IPTV will be the pervasive way of delivering broadcasting. Its rise will be similar to the advent of the internet. ...

Ruckus raised as AT&T test target

FierceIPTV - Washington,DC,USA

Light Reading reported that AT&T is close to beginning field trials of high-definition IPTV over the WiFi-based home wiring system of vendor Ruckus Wireless ...

Clearleap looks beyond Web TV delivery with content partnerships

SmartBrief - Washington,DC,USA

According to Clearleap, the three partnerships are the first of several and will soon be available for VOD viewing via a range of cable, satellite and IPTV ...

Orange Says 'Non!' To Project Kangaroo's IPTV Remains

paidContent - London,UK

Meanwhile, there's still no sign of Orange's IPTV service. which was put on ice last November by UK CEO Tom Alexander. The company has since said it is ...

NRTC Invests in Avail Media to Help Rural Telcos with Advanced IPTV

TMCnet - USA

NRTC has reaffirmed its belief that IPTV (News - Alert) and next generation video services are going to be a major source of revenue to its members. ...

