

July 3, 2009, Daily News

Friday, 03 July 2009

Last Updated Friday, 03 July 2009

Telecom majors log onto IPTV

NDTV.com - New Delhi, India

With revenues per user for fixed line telephony falling every year, telecoms want to provide additional value-added services to their customers and IPTV ...

Real-time IPTV Service Subscribers Hit 468773 in June

•à8 - South Korea

The real-time IPTV service subscribers hit 468773, a 10 time increase compared with the end of last December. Also, the total subscribers increased to ...

BBC: No clear future for free-to-air TV platforms

TechRadar UK - Patrick Goss - &Irm;15 hours ago&Irm;

The BBC's Erik Huggers has admitted that the future for free-to-air digital platforms like Freesat and Freeview is 'unclear' – suggesting that only IPTV and ...

Disruptive technologies are giving fixed telcos a headache

Ovum - Sally Banks &Irm; &Irm;

As telcos look to offer more advanced IPTV offerings, and customers use more and more high-bandwidth applications, the need for greater fibre investment in ...

3rd July - Ericsson has been awarded contracts with the three ...

MobileGuru (press release) - &Irm;12 hours ago&Irm;

... Hubei, Liaoning, Shandong, Shanghai and Sichuan provinces to enjoy services such as quality voice, high-speed broadband and high-definition IPTV.