

July 6, 2009, Daily News

Monday, 06 July 2009

Last Updated Monday, 06 July 2009

An eye on IPTV

Malaysia Star - Malaysia

NEW FRONTIER: IPTV may soon become the de facto way to enjoy your favourite television programmes. Television via the Internet is all set to catch on as ...

IPTV service to be fine-tuned

Malaysia Star - Malaysia

FINE TV, an IPTV service in the country, was launched in December 2005 and has about 1000 subscribers nationwide now, with the bulk of these in the Klang ...

Reinventing IPTV: Which way forward?

Asia Pacific Broadcasting - Singapore

By Millette Burgos &mdash; ill adding Internet elements to IPTV make this service more compelling to consumers? The idea of watching content from an IPTV stream ...

Keisense and DiviNet Partner to Jointly Deliver Interactive TV ...

PR Newswire (press release) - New York,NY,USA

DiviNet, a leading provider of Internet Protocol Television (IPTV) solutions, and Keisense, an innovative provider of user interface technologies for ...

Huawei Launches Mass-Market Femtocell Device

istockAnalyst.com (press release) - Salem,OR,USA

The device supports video streaming, IPTV, video conferencing, and mobile broadband. Jiang Wangcheng, president of UMTS at Huawei Wireless, said: "Having a ...

Smart grid phenomenon gathering steam

TelecomTV - London,UK

Where this will come into it's own, is by combining this new technology with consumer interface models that I have previously seen around IPTV, ...

KT Boss Goes One Up on KCC Chairman

Korea Times - South Korea

The Korean government had been promoting WiBro, a wireless service that is the local variant of mobile WiMAX, and IPTV as the country's new high-tech growth ...

DTH, IPTV to cost more as govt imposes customs duty on set-top boxes

TelecomTiger - New Delhi,India

... industry was left fuming as the government imposed a 5 % customs duty on set-top boxes which are used in delivery of services like DTH and IPTV. ...

Polish incumbent widens IPTV reach

Broadband TV News - London,UK

Rzeczpospolita estimates the current number of TPSA subscribers as around 250000 (though this includes DTH, as well as IPTV), while its nearest IPTV ...