

July 31, 2009, Daily News

Friday, 31 July 2009

Last Updated Friday, 31 July 2009

Five goes IPTV with Project Canvas

Techwatch

by David Allen The terrestrial broadcaster, Five, has finally decided to join in with the other broadcasters on the IPTV joint venture, Project Canvas. ...

Entropic and Sigma to Develop HD, MoCA Complaint Set-Top-Box

TMC Net

The companies hope to fasten IP-Cable and IPTV (News - Alert) deployments worldwide with this STB collaboration. Entropic Communications is a fabless ...

In 2009, Wireless And Broadband Together Will Account For Over 60 ...

OfficialWire (press release)

Despite strong growth in demand for digital TV services, and although IPTV is an essential service in order for the telcos to compete in the triple play ...

Entropic Links With Sigma Designs

socalTech.com

The two said they will develop high definition, MoCA compliant cable TV and IPTV set-top box reference designs. Both firms' develop components that are used ...

Estonia Boasts The Highest Broadband Penetration Level Of All ...

OfficialWire (press release)

Competition in the digital pay TV market is healthy as take up of broadband TV (IPTV) and satellite pay TV is growing annually. Analogue switch off has been ...

Surewest To Offer IPTV Over ADSL2+

Dslreports

Surewest already offers IPTV service to its fiber customers, who can get symmetrical service at speeds up to 25Mbps for $70 bundled, $84 unbundled. ...