

August 4, 2009, Daily News

Tuesday, 04 August 2009

Last Updated Tuesday, 04 August 2009

IPTV subscriptions rise sharply in July

Korea Herald

According to the telecom industry, the number of subscriptions for IPTV services with real time broadcasting increased by nearly 127000 in July. ...

IPTV's Value And Challenges For MENA Telecom Operators

Middle East Events (press release)

Despite numerous innovations in television service technologies and high household penetration, Internet protocol television (IPTV) may still offer a ... IPTV's Value and Challenges for MENA Telecom Operators

Zawya

Lack of interactive services and negligible competition from cable makes the MENA region well positioned to leverage the advantages IPTV offers. ...

13 Million homes to have IPTV in 2014 - study

Telecompaper

Some 13 million homes in Latin America are forecast to have IPTV access by 2014, according to a study by Signals Telecom Consulting. ... Major boost for Russian IPTV

Broadband TV News

By Chris Dziadul The Russian alternative telco Vimpelcom is to move full steam ahead with the Corbina IPTV project. Quoting Vimpelcom's development director ...

ZTE Leads the IPTV Vendor Market in Asia, Wins the Best Practice Award

TMCnet

By Rajani Baburajan, TMCnet Contributor Telecommunications equipment vendor ZTE has been awarded the 2009 IPTV (News - Alert) Equipment Vendor of the Year ...

Wireless and Broadband to Account for More Than 60 Percent of ...

TMCnet

The telcos have been slow to deploy IPTV (News - Alert) despite the fact that IPTV is an essential service in order for the telcos to compete in the triple ...