

---

August 11, 2009, Daily News

Tuesday, 11 August 2009

Last Updated Tuesday, 11 August 2009

Ericsson, MagtiCom ink IPTV contract

TeleGeography

Ericsson Nikola Tesla, the Croatian affiliate of Swedish telecoms equipment vendor Ericsson, has announced it has signed an IPTV contract with Georgian ...

Harmonic gear snags magazine award

CED Magazine

By Mike Robuck Harmonic recently announced that Technology Marketing Corporation (TMC) named its Direct-2-Edge D2E cable IPTV offering and Rhozet Carbon ...

Atlantis Technology Group's Subsidiary Global Online Television ...

TMCnet

Christopher M. Dubeau, CEO, states, "With this agreement in place, GOTV can begin to shift its focus to taking orders for the IPTV service as well as ...

ExtendMedia Expands Video Advertising Partner Program

Broadcast Newsroom

OpenCASE manages video content across the lifecycle from ingest to monetization and across IPTV, Web and mobile services in both ad-supported and pay media ... Satellite TV still flying high

FierceIPTV

Some time ago I had satellite figured as the key victim of the rise of telco IPTV, and later as a victim of its own lack of flexibility in a fiber-infused, ...

Vodafone stops accepting new users for Arcor IPTV service

Telecompaper

The integration of Vodafone Germany with fixed network unit Arcor has implications for the marketing of Arcor's IPTV service. Vodafone dropped the Arcor ...

Comtrend to Provide SingTel IPTV Service with DS2 Chipset Technology

Satellite Today (subscription)

DS2 supplies compatible circuits and chipsets designed for service provider IPTV applications, offering a maximum data transfer rate of 200 megabits per ...

IPTV Not a Threat to Blu-ray Say Industry Pros

High-Def Digest

Panels put together to discuss the threat IPTV may pose to the Blu-ray format came to a consensus: There is no threat. According to the group that twice put ...

