

August 21, 2009, Daily News

Friday, 21 August 2009

Last Updated Friday, 21 August 2009

Free IPTV from Belgacom Belgium

IPTV Watch

by Alan Harten Telecoms provider Belgacom, in Belgium, decided to extend its free IPTV trial service for Belgacom TV. The trial is open to both existing and ...

Lattelecom passes 30k IPTV subs

IPTV News

Latvian telco Lattelecom has reached 30000 subscribers for its IPTV service 'Lattelecom Interactive TV', launched in April 2007. The 30000th subscriber to ...

Almost 30% of German consumers willing to switch to IPTV

IPTV News

Nearly 30% of German consumers would be willing to switch to receiving IPTV services, according to an online survey by Ludwig-Maximilian University on ...

Envivio Debuts 4Caster C4 HD

TMCnet

IPTV service providers can use the new encoder/decoder to deliver HD services at lower bit rates across greater distances on DSL networks thereby reducing ...

Will The TVAnywhere Initiative Miss The Point?

Search Engine Land

On the other hand , the current path of TVAnywhere and IPTV in general poses some risks to the content producers. In the current linear world, ...

SK Broadband introduces new IPTV service

IPTV News

South Korean telco SK Broadband has introduced a new version of its IPTV service, dubbed 'Broad & IPTV 2.0', at a launch event at company headquarters in ...

SeaChange to Present 3-Screen Video and Broadcast Delivery ...

Trading Markets (press release) - ‎4 hours ago‎

... which uses SeaChange's TV Navigator middleware platform to show how cable and IPTV operators can deliver video content to TVs, desktops and mobile ...

Cox Picks Brew Platform For Mobile Service

InformationWeek - Marin Perez - ‎9 hours ago‎

... such as AT&T and Verizon, which are increasingly encroaching on cable companies' turf by offering home data and IPTV services like FiOS and U-Verse. ...

