

August 27, 2009, Daily News

Thursday, 27 August 2009

Last Updated Thursday, 27 August 2009

Does Sigma Deserve Your Love?

Motley Fool

Management noted that sales in the IPTV segment, which is Sigma's largest source of revenues, jumped 25% this quarter due to the timing of large orders. ...

P&T Luxembourg in IPTV HD upgrade

Broadband TV News

By Julian Clover P&TLuxembourg is to expand its 80-channel IPTV service with the launch of linear HD channels. The telco is deploying ATEME's Kyrion AM2101 ...

European IPTV project questions Canvas

C21Media

Some of Europe's biggest broadcasters including France's TF1 and Germany's ZDF have teamed with a group of tech firms to create an IPTV standard its backers ...

Ahead of the Bell: Sigma Designs shares dip

Forbes

... change his view that internet protocol TV revenue is set to rebound "as the competitive landscape remains unchanged." Sigma makes chips for IPTV devices.

Tilgin AB: Tilgin enables Remote Management of IPTV Set Top Boxes ...

MarketWatch (press release)

The new VCM 5.6 introduces Remote Management of IPTV Set Top Boxes while also further improving its performance and High Availability characteristics. ...

Farmers Telephone Cooperative Extends Deployment of Occam's BLC ...

Business Wire (press release)

"As challenging as it is to deliver IPTV to a diverse geographic serving area, the Occam BLC 6000 MSAP overcame our deployment obstacles with a robust ... Chequamegon picks Entone HD devices for IPTV services

Telecompaper (subscription)

IPTV home connectivity services provider Entone has won a contract from US regional telephone company Chequamegon Communications Cooperative to provide its ...

Koreans clamor for IPTV in August

JoongAng Daily

The government's push to popularize Internet Protocol TV, or IPTV, seems to be working. Korea's IPTV subscriber levels topped 700000 for the first time, ...