

September 20, 2009, Daily News

Sunday, 20 September 2009

Last Updated Sunday, 20 September 2009

Infonetics: Q2 equipment market hits $1.2 billion

FierceIPTV - Dan O'Shea

Infonetics Research, in its latest quarterly scan of the global IPTV and cable video equipment sector says that gear sales hit $1.2 billion during the ...

Media Monday: From 1 hour to 7200 hours of Daily TV Entertainment

India Business Blog (blog) - Arun Prabhudesai

IPTV- Some questions answered: Well, we have been hearing about it a lot. IPTV can change the face of Television, especially in... Media Monday: How Indian ...

Korea's Deteriorating IT Competitiveness Needs Wake-up Call

p |ô(8)

Business projects such as WiBro and IPTV, which were expected to boost Korea's IT competitiveness, have in effect come to a halt despite investments of...

'Korea, Important Market for Content Creators'

Korea Times - Han Sang-hee

... to Korean consumers with online connections, including mobile phones, digital multimedia broadcasting (DMB) technology and IPTV platforms," she said. ...

Carriers to Silicon Valley: We need your innovation

Zikkir World (blog) - Renato Leon surewest CTO Bill demuth said his company, which offers telecom, fixed broadband and IPTV services in Kansas City, Kan., and Sacramento, Calif., ...

IRG Technology, Media and Telecoms Weekly Asia Market Review

ACN Newswire (press release)

The main engines of growth in South Korea's telecom market from 2010 to 2014 will be services built around broadband technologies such as VoIP, IPTV, ...

Deutsche Telekom, Sky split over IPTV

Rapid tv news

The withdrawal from Telekom's IPTV platform will lead to a drop in Sky's subscription figures. T-Home Entertain currently has more than 800000 customers, ...