

January 12, 2010, Daily News

Tuesday, 12 January 2010

Last Updated Wednesday, 13 January 2010

Bell: IPTV deserves some state support

The Spokesman Review (blog)

Hammon said he doesn't think IPTV gets credit for all the things it does, and perhaps it should be paid for some of those. ...

IMS Research — Blame Blu-ray For IPTV Uptick

SatNews Publishers

The newly released IMS Research report Market Opportunities for Internet Video to the TV -2010 Edition, reveals that Internet video device shipments will ...

Cox makes Epix leap

C21Media

Epix, which is jointly owned by Viacom, Lionsgate and MGM, previously had been available only on Verizon's FiOS IPTV service, which has about 2.5 million ...

World's largest ship showcases passenger technology at sea

Independent

For those wanting a quiet night in, each of the 2706 guestrooms is equipped with a flatscreen television that uses IPTV (internet television) to deliver ... Atlantis Technology Group Announces Important Shareholder Information and the ...

CNNMoney.com (press release)

We urge all shareholders to listen to the conference call to get up to date information concerning the company and the GOTV IPTV service. ...

KT Attracted Most IPTV, Internet Phone Subscribers Last Year

The Chosun Ilbo

Korea's leading fixed-line and broadband provider KT signed up the largest number of new subscribers to its Internet protocol television (IPTV) and Internet ...