

February 4, 2010, Daily News

Thursday, 04 February 2010

Last Updated Saturday, 20 February 2010

China Telecom seeks approval to expand IPTV trial

TeleGeography

SARFT has supposedly already awarded IPTV licences to eight companies including China Central Television, Shanghai Media Group, People's Daily and Xinhua ...

Bell's new fibre deployments to allow roll out of additional services

Trading Markets (press release)

The company will also launch its enhanced Bell Fibe Internet series, and will introduce a Bell IPTV service later in 2010. The FTTH deployments cross the ...

TV 'Anywhere': AT&T Relents on 3G Slingbox

Wired News - Eliot Van Buskirk

... app for their U-verse? IF they can allow for Sling then shouldn't they offer similar for their U-verse customers since they say U-verse is "IPTV"?

Mega Hertz Inks ViP-TV Reseller Agreement with EchoStar

TMCnet

By Jai CS Mega Hertz is an IPTV technology integrator and offers a variety of communication and entertainment solutions for IPTV distributors. ...

Bell to launch Internet TV, improve broadband

Toronto Sun

The service, Bell IPTV, will be powered by the Microsoft multimedia software platform and is undergoing consumer trials. IPTV will offer a wide range of ...

Three roads to championship

National

Each will be set at a different price and will have different advantages depending on the broadband and IPTV penetration of each country's market. ...

Canada Embraces IPTV with New Installations, Award-winning Applications

mediacaster

As more and more Canadian telecom providers and broadcast distributors embrace IPTV as a new opportunity to increase revenue streams with TV, ...

Bell to launch Internet TV, improve broadband

Toronto Sun

The service, Bell IPTV, will be powered by the Microsoft multimedia software platform and is undergoing consumer trials. IPTV will offer a wide range of ...

Copyright court decision to impact Australian IPTV models

encore

Head of digital Tom Kennedy added that companies are already looking at ISPs as delivery platforms through an IPTV service, but they have to find a balance ...

Bell boosts internet speeds

CBC.ca

Bell also announced it will roll out Internet Protocol Television, or IPTV, in Toronto and Montreal in 2010. IPTV is a television service offered over an ...

Canada Embraces IPTV with New Installations, Award-winning Applications

mediacaster

As more and more Canadian telecom providers and broadcast distributors embrace IPTV as a new opportunity to increase revenue streams with TV, ...