

February 7, 2010, Daily News

Sunday, 07 February 2010

Last Updated Saturday, 20 February 2010

Fibre broadband subscribers to total 106 million

Electronics News

File sharing, music downloads, IPTV, online gaming and video conferencing are all acting to increase the user demand for high-speed Internet. ...

INTERVIEW: Michael Malone still excited, after 16 years

Australian Personal Computer

iiNet also hopes to launch broader IPTV services — digital television via the internet — in the next quarter, giving customers the style of access Malone ...

TrendChip Technologies Launches Next-Generation 11n ADSL2+ Turnkey Solution

PR-CANADA.net (press release)

As China plans to roll out three- network convergence in five years to offer users a variety of services including voice, broadband Internet access and IPTV ...

Tribune Media Services Teams with ThinkAnalytics to Showcase Intelligent ...

PR-CANADA.net (press release)

... tastes with a unique personalized experience for both Linear TV and VOD, delivered through any channel - set top box, web, IPTV, mobile and call center. ...

STB shipments to grow at 12% CAGR by 2014 in APAC region: ABI Research

MediaMughals - 14 hours ago

Also, the overall STB shipments in the Asia-Pacific (APAC) region, including those for cable, DBS, IPTV, and DTT television services, will approach 111 ...

CONNECT 2010 Set to Showcase South Asia Talent with Techistan and DIDX

PR-USA.net (press release) - 18 hours ago

With Pakistan being ahead of the curve in mobile, IPTV, great outgoing call rates, research and development, the next step is showing this off to the world. ...

Fibre broadband still trumps wireless subs: ABI

DigitalProductionME.com

File sharing, music downloads, IPTV, online gaming and video conferencing are all acting to increase user demand for high speed Internet. ...

Internet protocol TV braces for Australian push

The Australian - Lara Sinclair

... "disruptive technology" that will spur on the development of local IPTV services, and probably spark a reaction from dominant pay-TV provider Foxtel. ...

GFC, NBN not hurting ISP DSL investment

iTWire - Stephen Withers

"In addition, ISPs continue to innovate beyond simple Internet access into new services, such as IPTV, which they believe will further boost subscriber ...