

March 17, 2010, Daily News

Wednesday, 17 March 2010

Last Updated Wednesday, 17 March 2010

Deutsche Telekom to Increase Internet Service Revenue

BusinessWeek

By 2012, it aims to have more than 18 million broadband customers and as many as 6 million customers using its Internet IPTV service Entertain in Germany ...

Sky: 'Canvas will distort IPTV market'

Digital Spy

By Andrew Laughlin, Technology Reporter Sky chief operating officer Mike Darcey has said that the BBC-led joint venture Project Canvas will "distort fair ...

Deutsche Telekom hopes for growth with new services

Reuters

... in sales by 2015 from services around the mobile Internet as well as cloud computing, IPTV, web hosting and enabling connectivity across all devices. ...

3D-ready IPTV SoC sports three app processors

WindowsForDevices

By Jonathan Angel ViXS Systems announced a MIPS-based SoC (system on chip) designed for IP set-top boxes (STBs). The 3D-ready XCode 4210 includes three ...

KT, LGT, SK Broadband Join '3D Frenzy'

Korea Times

By Kim Yoo-chul The nation's major Internet protocol television (IPTV) players plan to ride on the current 3D boom by launching three dimensional-related ...

IneoQuest Backs New Industry Recommended Practice; Introduces Program ...

Marketwire (press release)

As the lead sponsor of the 'Minimizing OPEX in IPTV' conference stream, IneoQuest will focus on its company backing of new industry recommended practices ...

On Demand Group and The Walt Disney Company Agree Deal to Offer Disney Content ...

MarketWatch (press release)

Visit On Demand Group at IPTV World Forum (SeaChange stand 29) for a multiscreen video-on-demand demonstration at the Olympia National Hall, London, ...

Anevia scores Egyptian IPTV deployment

DigitalProductionME.com

by Digital Production Middle East Staff on Mar 17, 2010 Palm Hills Developments, Egypt's first real estate project to incorporate an IPTV network, ...

YAOTVG, or 'Yet Another Online TV Guide' launches

ConnectedPlanet (blog)

With telcos playing in all areas of this market (IPTV, ISP and mobile), one lingering question is exactly what's the service provider partnership play in ...