March 31, 2010, Daily News
Wednesday, 31 March 2010
Last Updated Wednesday, 31 March 2010

Sky Sports coming to IPTV platforms
 Web User
 Sky Sports channels could be available to IPTV broadcasters within six weeks after Ofcom said that it would set the broadcaster's wholesale prices. ...

 CEE telcos take "bold approach" to broadband
 IPTV News
 Thanks to the emergence of IPTV, incumbents have also gained an opportunity to offer bundled services, according to the report. “The next two years will be ...

 ST Media Player on STMicroelectronics' STi7105 Earns DivX Certification
 Trading Markets (press release)
 DivX, Inc., a digital media company, announced at IPTV World Forum 2010 that the native ST Media Player on STMicroelectronics' STi7105 will be DivX ...

Bridge Launches New IPTV Monitoring Interface
CableFAX
Oslo-based Bridge Technologies has announced the new VB262, a dual QAM/8VSB input module option for its VideoBRIDGE monitoring probes. ...

Duncan Cable TV Selects GoBackTV's Cable IPTV Platform to Power Interactive ...
 InteractiveTV Today [itvt]
 ... a company which has developed a platform--dubbed RetroVue and targeted at smaller cable operators--that delivers switched multicast and unicast IPTV ...

Ofcom orders Sky to slash wholesale prices
 IBTimes
 Sky must offer to supply Sky Sports 1 and 2 to other retailers for example, cable, terrestrial and IPTV at a wholesale price set by Ofcom. ...

Polish TV market falls 22% in 2009
 openPR (press release)
 Digital Satellite accounted for 70% of the market, whereas Cable TV represented 29% of revenues, and IPTV less than 1%. In the Free TV area, Poland's public ...

Focus on S'pore in Cannes
 Straits Times
 ... for the buying and selling of television programmes or films, as well as the negotiating of digital content for IPTV channels and mobile operators. ...

Duncan Cable TV Taps GoBackTV for Cable IPTV and VoD
 TVover.net (blog)
 The new services will initially include over 50 channels of HD cable IPTV, Video on Demand, video mosaic, switched multicast, and startover. ...