May 27, 2010, Daily News
Thursday, 27 May 2010
Last Updated Thursday, 27 May 2010

BEST OF THE BLOGS: Stuart Smith on the BBC and video on demand
 American Chronicle
 ... clearly implies that, in the case of Kangaroo, the BBC did - a situation that would have eventually enabled it to exercise a stranglehold over UK IPTV. ...

Bulgarian telco Vivacom confirms IPTV plans
 IPTV News
 Bulgarian telco Vivacom has confirmed that it plans to launch an IPTV   service by the middle of this year, becoming the second such service in   the country. ...

What role do brands play in an IPTV world?
 Marketing Week
 They say that IPTV, with its claims to offer increased personalised services, will apparently surpass the conventional TV experience. ...

ISP filter may put Google TV on backburner
 NEWS.com.au - Peter Farquhar
 It will also impact not just IPTV but all kinds of web products and services." "That may well be a consideration in how quickly it's deployed in Australia. ...

Sigma Designs Slumps As Likely To Lose Market Share In 2H
 Wall Street Journal
 The company said the exposed part of the business comprises about 10% of total revenue and 20% of IPTV revenue, though it's "encouraged" it may end up with ... YuuZoo & CKE Sign Groundbreaking Mobile Partnership Deal to Release Hip Hop ...
PRLog.Org (press release)
This will include a substantial amount of impressions across all CKE broadcasting platforms; including ads in hip hop content broadcasting on IPTV and OTT ...

 Atlantis Technology Group Subsidiary Global Online Television Corporation ...
 MarketWatch (press release)
 The GO V Phone is a revolutionary service that combines VOIP with IPTV to deliver video phone to your home TV. You will be able to make calls to all of your ...

Japan's KDDI selects new Motorola IPTV set-tops
 IPTV News
 Japanese telco KDDI has selected Motorola's new VIP2060 high-definition IPTV   set-top boxes to provide personal media experiences to customers of its ...