

June 20, 2010, Daily News

Sunday, 20 June 2010

Last Updated Monday, 21 June 2010

Asia leads in broadband growth&Irm;

Business Times (subscription)

At the same time the number of IPTV (Internet Protocol TV) subscribers grew ... China and the USA are the top two countries for both broadband and IPTV,' Mr ...

Pay-TV a winner as Foxtel spared&Irm;

The Australian - Tim Boreham

"It's as if Foxtel knows its IPTV will have a potential competitor, so let's offer it to Telstra's clients," Mr Canavan said.

...

Champion one day, out the next

Christian Today -- Australia - Mark Tronson

No sooner had Margaret Court's interview with the Australian Missionary News IPTV been edited, than what she said came to pass. The 1970 Grand Slam tennis ...

Asia adds 53% broadband lines in Q1 10&Irm;

EE Times India

At the same time the number of IPTV subscribers grew to 3.63 crore (36.3 million). China and the USA are the top two countries for both broadband and IPTV. ...

Telstra has finally sealed its own doom&Irm;

iTWire - Renai LeMay

... look at the growing number of IPTV and video on demand services launching this year from the TV networks and third parties to see that trend in action. ...

Telstra releases broadband deals in time for T-Box launch

CRN Australia - Daniel Long

These include: Each 24 month contract will come pre-bundled with Telstra's T-Box, which marks Telstra's first foray into the developing world of IPTV. ...

Netway India to power content for Airtel digital TV&Irm;

Expressindia.com

... towards delivering groundbreaking content through new platforms, and has launched its services both on cable television, IPTV and now Airtel digital TV. ...

Reliance restructuring?&Irm;

Rapid tv news - Rose Major

Big TV has signed up some 2.3 million subscribers since its August 2008 launch. Reliance IPTV, meanwhile, is still only available in limited areas in ...