

July 20, 2010, Daily News

Tuesday, 20 July 2010

Last Updated Tuesday, 20 July 2010

TeliaSonera sees IPTV fall

Broadband TV News

By Julian Clover Around 36% of TeliaSonera's broadband customers now subscribe to its IPTV offer, but the Swedish telco has reported a second quarter dip in ...

Desmond tipped to return Five to Project Canvas

New Media Age

Express Newspapers owner Richard Desmond will return Five to IPTV venture Project Canvas if he succeeds in buying out the broadcaster, according to reports. ...

TCT intros on-screen caller ID

IPTV News

US telco TCT, based in northern Wyoming, has deployed IPTV middleware from Cisco and a service delivery platform from ETI Software Solutions, enabling the ...

Service now key differentiator for IPTV

ZDNet Asia

Telcos in the IPTV business need to focus on providing better service in terms of user experience and applications instead of relying on content, ...

"Our IPTV service will expand the Turkish TV market"

IPTV News

Where does TTNET currently stand with its IPTV rollout? At TTNET, we are completing the final work on our IPTV service, which we will offer to Turkey very ...

TeliaSonera profits up on lower revenues; IPTV subs bump up 19K

FierceIPTV

Swedish telecom operator TeliaSonera said it added 19000 IPTV customers in the quarter ending in June, and grew subscriber ranks by some 131000 for the ...

SCTE Hires CTO to Help Fill Cable's IP Void

Light Reading

He's also coming on board as US operators start to test IPTV and begin to make preparations for its inevitable widescale adoption. ... Comtrend enables HD across the home

Rapid tv news

This on paper is enough to support up to four different concurrent HD streams and provide a high-quality, HD IPTV video experience along with whole home ...

The Ski Channel signs VOD deal with Comcast

Radio & Television Business Report

The Ski Channel is an original, free ad supported network delivered on cable, satellite and IPTV services, web, wireless and other means of distribution. ...