

July 28, 2010, Daily News

Wednesday, 28 July 2010

Last Updated Wednesday, 28 July 2010

ADB sees IPTV orders recover in H1

IPTV News

Geneva-headquartered set-top box firm Advanced Digital Broadcast (ADB) enjoyed a recovery in its IPTV set-top box orders in the first half of this year, ...

TRAI recommendations should be rejected

Economic Times

The Telecom Regulatory Authority of India had last week fixed the wholesale tariff to be paid to broadcasters for TV channels by DTH and IPTV service ...

Radius Infratel signs contract with Ericsson for broadband access across India

Trading Markets (press release)

Consumers will be able to enjoy internet speeds of up to 100Mbps, IPTV and bandwidth-intensive entertainment available from multiple operators on single ...

Some Questions for Mobile DTV

TV Technology

by Bill Hayes, 07.28.2010 At IPTV we have been going through our strategic planning for the last few months. As we were distilling our visions, ...

Are Service Providers Giving Up on Landline too Soon?

TMCnet

IPTV (News - Alert) rollouts from the telcos aren't hurting them as much as they're hurting the telcos by winning away landline phone subscribers. ...

Evertz Technologies Reports Purchase in Excess of $7 Million

MarketWatch (press release)

... and markets video and audio infrastructure equipment for the production, post production, broadcast and internet protocol television ("IPTV") industry. ...! Internet TV Set To Be Mainstream Before 3D Claims Experts

ChannelNews

They also claim that IPTV will become mainstream ahead of 3D TV. The news is set to please Telstra who are currently working with several TV vendors to ...

Sudbury, Montreal to get new IPTV BDUs

Cartt.ca (subscription)

It plans to launch an IPTV-based TV system to complement its phone and internet offerings. The Montreal license recipient is another VOIP provider and ISP ...

Envivio gathers another $15M in funding

CED Magazine

Envivio, an encoder and IPTV specialist, has been active in integrating over-the-top content with existing services . It is providing the technology behind ...

