

Aug. 12, 2010, Daily News

Thursday, 12 August 2010

Last Updated Thursday, 12 August 2010

Sam's Club To Offer Wi-Fi in US Stores (NYSE: WMT)

American Consumer News (blog)

The use of Wi-Fi will allow customers with smart phones to use them while shopping and also will let Sam's Club associates to demo their new IPTV's ...

South African regulator sets out IPTV policy

IPTV News

The Independent Communications Authority of South Africa (ICASA) has set out its policy decisions on IPTV and video-on-demand in a policy paper released ...

Project Canvas looks for hardware partners

PCR-online.biz

by Matt Grainger | Email a friend | Print Project Canvas, the collaborative partnership for creating an open IPTV platform, is looking for consumer device ...

Bold step for Australian Missionary News IPTV!

Christian Today -- Australia

A bold new step in the presentation of the Australian Missionary News IPTV has taken place and it's possible as there are two separate sites. ...

Time Warner Cable iPad app brings interactive program guide

Electronista (blog)

Time Warner Cable is the latest cable, satellite or IPTV company to soon bring out an iPad app that will make watching TV easier. ...

The Fullerton Bay Hotel Singapore First in Singapore to Offer Enhanced IPTV ...

I-Newswire.com (press release)

The in-room entertainment solution was supplied by RoomWise, an HD-IPTV system provided by BNS, Asia's leading IPTV technology and content solutions ...

Mobile Phone War Tipped As Telstra Target Optus&Irm;

ChannelNews - David Richards

He also said that several new products were in the pipeline with one product set to be an IPTV service that delivers content to a TV without the need for a ...

SingTel earnings flat at $943m&Irm;

TODAYonline - Ryan Huang

Some analysts believe it will be challenging for SingTel to achieve profitability in its IPTV business any time soon. "The trick really for SingTel is to ...

Why AT&T and Comcast Are Changing Their Brands

E-Commerce Times

The phone companies' IPTV services and satellite television companies like DirecTV and DISH are competing with the cable television industry for the big ...

