

Aug. 27, 2010, Daily News

Friday, 27 August 2010

Last Updated Friday, 27 August 2010

Chunghwa Telecom targeting 900k IPTV subs by year-end

IPTV News

Taiwanese telco Chunghwa Telecom has stated its aim to reach 900000 customers for its IPTV service 'Multimedia on Demand' by the end of this year, ... Telekom Slovenije gains IPTV subs, loses market share

IPTV News

Telekom Slovenije had reached 113088 subscribers for its IPTV service 'SiOL TV' by the end of the first half of this year, up 19% year-on-year, ...

FET claims over 100000 IPTV subscribers

Telecompaper (subscription)

Russian regional operator Far-East Telecom announced that its IPTV subscriber base has exceeded the threshold of 100000, up from 41000 at end-2008 and 77000 ...

Mark Thompson's MacTaggart lecture – the full text‎

The Guardian

Next year, through Canvas, it will have IPTV functionality. Canvas will help us get services like iPlayer to every household in the land. ...

Vodafone Germany seeks mass-market impact for IPTV service

IPTV News

Vodafone Germany is hoping to achieve mass-market traction with its planned IPTV service, according to reports in daily newspaper Süddeutsche Zeitung. ...

Buy Microsoft Project‎

United Nations Development Fund for Women (UNIFEM)

... owned. ... the zigzag traversal employing that signature to her website besides each file per rigidly his company's iptv collaboration to communicate. ...

In telecom, a new battle for Quebec

Globe and Mail

Traditional phone companies, such as Bell and Telus Corp., are beginning the long process of rolling out Internet-protocol TV (IPTV) products to offset ...

It's competition calling

CTV.ca

Bell is pushing its IPTV service in Montreal, while Vidéotron launches a new wireless network throughout the province this fall. ...