

Feb. 8, 2011, Daily News

Tuesday, 08 February 2011

Last Updated Tuesday, 08 February 2011

Close to 42 Million Users Now Subscribe to IPTV

TMCnet

By Ed Silverstein, TMCnet Contributor Close to 42 million users now subscribe to Internet protocol television (IPTV) throughout the world, according to a ...

Worldwide IPTV Market to Reach US$78.9 Billion in Service Revenues by 2015 ...

San Francisco Chronicle (press release)

Flouting the recession, the world IPTV market posted encouraging growth at a time when most other industry sectors were preoccupied with paranoid risk ...

Sigma hopes to penetrate telecom with triple play service fulfillment platform

ConnectedPlanet

... where service providers are racing to compete with MSOs with fiber-to-the-home (FTTH) rollouts and IPTV and VoIP offerings. With today's announcement of ...

Billion's low-cost BiPAC 7700N modem/router

iTWire

... and VLAN and QoS support (to prioritise time-critical traffic such as IPTV, VoIP and gaming). Stewart Goodier, general manager of distributor PCRange, ...

Europe's Carriers Defend Turf

All Things Digital

For that reason, there are nearly twice as many paying IPTV subscribers in Europe compared with the US. This is a section of the All Things Digital Web site ...

Xs4all Interactive IPTV set for March

Broadband TV News

Dutch ISP Xs4all has announced it will launch its Interactive IPTV service this March. Basic subscription prices start at &euro;15 a month for 50 channels ...

DFAT eyes IPTV for Asian relations

Rapid tv news

Australia Network, which has been in operation since 1993, has been broadcast by the ABC since 2001 and is currently available in 44 Asian countries via ...

Russia's Utel passes 26k IPTV subs

IPTV News

Russian regional telecommunications operator Uralsvyazinform (Utel) has reached 26000 subscribers for its new IPTV service 'Utel.TV', launched a little over ...

Billion Introduces IPTV-Ready Router

TMCnet

By Deepika Mala, TMCnet Contributor Global networking device company Billion has introduced its IPTV-ready router, the BiPAC 7700N, for $89.95. ...

Sigma Systems Looks to Break Into the Telco Space with Triple-Play Fulfillment ...

TMCnet

"Telcos clearly realize that in order to deliver advanced IPTV, ultra-fast broadband and feature-rich SIP-based VoIP services, a fiber network is optimal," ...

Harris Launches Selenio Media Convergence Platform

Broadcasting & Cable

... fixed or mobile production environments, broadcast facilities, digital terrestrial redistribution head end, and cable, satellite and IPTV head ends. ...

Croatian IPTV platform revamps offer

Broadband TV News

Under it, subscribers to Iskon's IPTV service Iskon.TV will be able to enjoy the latest film titles from the major immediately after their theatrical ...

Why TiVo Failed In OZ

SmartHouse

... inevitable as consumers moved their viewing preferences to new HD channels and new IPTV services, over what is fast becoming old set top box technology. ...

Worldwide IPTV Market to Reach US$78.9 Billion in Service Revenues by 2015 ...

Benzinga

One of the few industries to defy the recessionary blues, global IPTV market posted encouraging growth during the years 2007 through 2010, and is projected ...

Billion launches $90 IPTV-ready Wireless N router

Rapid tv news

The QoS also provides full control of data traffic, enabling the router to prioritise important data such as IPTV and streaming content, especially with ...