

Feb. 9, 2011, Daily News

Wednesday, 09 February 2011

Last Updated Wednesday, 09 February 2011

Booming IPTV flies in face of recession

Rapid tv news

As consumer TV viewing habits change constantly, the IPTV market has evolved into a 'recession buster' according to new research by Global Industry Analysts ... Croatia's T-HT speeds up delivery of new films to VOD library

IPTV News

T-HT launched a new service for its IPTV subscribers called 'Iskon.TV Player' last week, which enables them to watch selected programmes on their PCs and ...

IPTV solutions develops new offerings in Latin America

Rapid tv news

IPTV Solutions has developed a new streaming technology designed to enable savings for pay-TV operators. eSpectia uses a P2P protocol that is said to allow ...

PREVIEW-BCE, Telus results seen boosted by smartphones, IPTV

Reuters

At the same time, they have both pushed Internet protocol television, or IPTV, products, as part of an industry trend to bundle telephone, Internet and ...

Alcatel-Lucent Leads Worldwide IPTV Access Market

TMCnet

By Rajani Baburajan, TMCnet Contributor According to the MRG report, Alcatel-Lucent (News - Alert) has been leading the IPTV Access segment since 2007. ...

IPTV To Air Iowa-Michigan Dual Live

University of Iowa Athletics

PARDON OUR PROGRESS! As friends of the UI and fans of the Hawkeyes know, the UI Athletics Department is well into a multi-million dollar revitalization of ...

IPTV & Content Distribution Taking Off At Telstra

ChannelNews

By David Richards | Wednesday | 09/02/2011 IPTV and the delivery of movie content is paying off for Telstra with total pay TV bundling revenue increasing by ...

No More Bootleg IPTV: Hotfile Faces Legal Action

TMCnet

By Jaclyn Allard, TMCnet Copy Editor With numerous sites offering a vast unauthorized selection of television shows and movies that can be watched ...

NTV-Plus looks to IPTV

Broadband TV News

The Russian DTH platform NTV-Plus has officially announced that it will become available on IPTV this year. At present the service – the longest established ...

Telekom Austria grows with IPTV

Rapid tv news

Austrian telecommunications company Telekom Austria has won 50000 new customers for the IPTV platform aonTV on its ADSL broadband network in 2010. ...

Youview is delayed to 'early 2012'

Inquirer

The IPTV product Youview seemed unstoppable, promising a subscription-free, open Internet-connected television service for the UK that had the backing of ...

Confirmed: UK's YouView IPTV JV Delayed To 2012

paidContent.org

Launch of the UK's public-service connected-TV joint venture YouView is now delayed until at least early 2012, the consortium says. ...

Sigma Systems introduces Telco Services Accelerator

TMC Net

The solution offers telcos the following benefits: the ability to offer residential subscribers improved services, including IPTV, broadband and VoIP; ...

Orange expands IPTV service

Broadband TV News

France Telecom's ISP orange is beefing up its IPTV offer TV d'Orange with new channels and services. A new virtual channel called Services pratiques ...

Orange enhances IPTV offer

IPTV News

Orange has substantially enhanced its IPTV offer in France through the addition of a new top-tier channel package, the introduction of new information ...