

Feb. 20, 2011, Daily News

Sunday, 20 February 2011

Last Updated Sunday, 20 February 2011

Fetch TV boosts movie content

AdNews - Prue Corlette

IPTV provider FetchTV has signed deals with four film studios, ... The move comes as competition in the IPTV sector heats up, ...

Fetch TV Tries To Rattle Telstra & T Box

SmartHouse - David Richards

Struggling to compete up against Foxtel and Telstra's T Box service Fetch TV, whose IPTV service has not been picked ...

China's The9 Signs IPTV Game Agreement With Disney

ChinaTechNews.com

According to the agreement, The9 will allegedly distribute Disney's gaming product called "Disney Game Carnival" via IPTV, digital TV, and Internet TV ...

DIS

FetchTV signs up new movie studios

PC World Magazine

FetchTV today announced that content from four more movie studios would be added to its subscription IPTV service, bringing the total studio count in the ...

KT ends January with 2.18 mln IPTV subs

Telecompaper (subscription)

Korean communications company KT ended January with 2.18 million IPTV subscribers after adding 96000 new customers during the month. ...

Smith and Jones Launches Cricket Ka Tadka

PR-USA.net (press release)

It is also being made available on all other Digital platforms like Video on Demand on DTH, IPTV and Cable TV as well as on Mobile phone networks. ...

Google, Sony, TiVo and more form AllVid Tech Company Alliance

Afterdawn.com

... internet TV or IPTV - to be viewable on the same device, without new technology forcing consumers to have to upgrade their equipment.