

Feb. 21, 2011, Daily News

Monday, 21 February 2011

Last Updated Tuesday, 22 February 2011

Shenzhen builds HD-integrated IPTV broadcasting control sub-platform

People's Daily Online

Shenzhen has completed an integrated IPTV broadcasting control sub-platform, which lays a foundation for the IPTV services in the context of the integration of telecomm networks, cable TV networks and the Internet. Built by Shenzhen Radio, ...

Wall Street Communications and Volicon Renew Public Relations Services Contract

PR Newswire (press release)

Headquartered in Burlington, Mass., Volicon delivers compliance, media analysis, and content repurposing solutions that meet the demanding requirements of broadcasters, cable and IPTV service providers, and enterprise and government organizations ...

FetchTV signs four new movie studios

IPTV News

Australian whitelabel IPTV provider FetchTV has signed up four more movie studios to its content line-up, bringing its total to 12. The four new movie studios are Twentieth Century Fox, Madman Entertainment, Sony Picture Television and WWE Studios. ... Wall Street Communications and Volicon Renew Public Relations Services Contract

PR Newswire (press release)

Headquartered in Burlington, Mass., Volicon delivers compliance, media analysis, and content repurposing solutions that meet the demanding requirements of broadcasters, cable and IPTV service providers, and enterprise and government organizations ...

KidsCo enters Finnish market

Broadband TV News

The international children's channel KidCo is to launch this March on SHEF, the leading IPTV and cable service provider in Finland. Commenting on the move, Glenn Bridger, content director at SHEF, said: "Family orientated programming is a vital ...

Vladlink to launch IPTV in Russian Far East

IPTV News

Russian ISP Vladlink is trialling IPTV services in the country's Far East, in preparation for a full commercial launch with its residential customers. The company has selected Netris to provide its iVision middleware (version 3) for the new service, ... Portugal Telecom introduces pre-pay card for VOD rentals

IPTV News

Portugal Telecom has introduced a new way for subscribers of its IPTV service 'Meo' to pay for video-on-demand rentals with the launch of pre-pay cards. The cards are available from Portugal Telecom's website, its retail stores and authorised ... Telstra takes steps against bandwidth hogs

The Australian

While LTE should be fine for moderate use, Telstra is wary of subscribers using it for heavy duty bandwidth applications like high-definition video streaming and IPTV. To check bandwidth gluttons, Telstra's director of network and commercial planning ...

Research and Markets: Digital TV Receivers: Worldwide Shipments Forecasts ...

Business Wire (press release)

DTH satellite, digital cable, IPTV, and terrestrial platforms are all forecasted in this report that provides a thorough and concise snapshot of the future of digital TV devices. The report includes shipment estimates for set-top boxes and Integrated ... AT&T adds FOX Soccer Plus HD

IPTV News

AT&T has added the channel FOX Soccer Plus HD to its IPTV service 'U-verse TV', offering a variety of sports including coverage of English Premier League football. The channel is priced at USD 15 per month and also carries coverage of other football ...