

Feb. 23, 2011, Daily News

Wednesday, 23 February 2011

Last Updated Wednesday, 23 February 2011

Worldwide IPTV subs to reach 109mn by 2014

IPTV News

The number of IPTV subscribers worldwide will reach 109mn by 2014, rising at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of about 25% between 2011 and 2014, as telcos look for new revenue streams beyond data and voice services, according to a new report from ...

Research and Markets: World IP Video Network Management Market Poised for More ...

Business Wire (press release)

This study focuses on the IP video management solutions in broadcast, cable, IPTV and other markets. In this study Frost & Sullivan evaluates the current state of the World IP video network management market and factors that will attribute to its ... Turkish Internet service provider unveils new IPTV project

Hurriyet Daily News

Turkish users will have access to TNet's 'Tivibu' IPTV service on their mobile phones soon, according to General Manager Tahsin Yılmaz during a keynote address at a publicity meeting for new market strategies concerning the service. ... Heavy Promotion Likely to Push the Stock of OneFi Technology Inc. (PINK:ONFI) High

HotStocked

The company has committed to developing IPTV broadband services and offering them both in the United States and worldwide. ONFI was incorporated 14 years ago in Nevada. Since then, it has changed its name two times only. A quick glance at the financial ...

Broadband Services Soar as Competition Increases in Slovakia, Pyramid Finds

TMC Net

"Pyramid foresees the strongest revenue growth in broadband, IPTV and VoIP services with a cumulative revenue opportunity of euro 1.75 billion ($2.04 billion) between 2010 and 2015, derived from a combination of further expansion of FTTH infrastructure ... Optimal Solutions' eVideon Healthcare IPTV System's Rising Popularity

TMCnet

By Carolyn J Dawson, TMCnet Contributor Optimal Solutions, a Michigan based software development and engineering company, has recently announced that its eVideon Healthcare IPTV System will be deployed soon at the Blodgett Hospital. ...

Telekom Austria increases IPTV figures

Rapid tv news

Austria's national telco Telekom Austria has managed to increase the number of customers for the IPTV platform aonTV on its ADSL broadband network last year compared with 2009 by almost 50% to more than 151000 customers. ...

Telekom Austria sees IPTV subs gather pace

IPTV News

Telekom Austria had reached over 151000 subscribers for its IPTV service 'aonTV' by the end of 2010, up more than 50% from one year previously. The telco added that for the first time in ten years, it had an overall growth in access lines last year, ...

Telstra's BigPond® TV Service to Use thePlatform as Cloud-Based Video ...

PR Newswire (press release)

thePlatform's mpx video management and publishing system enables Telstra to deliver a hybrid live/on-demand IPTV service featuring BigPond TV (music videos, sports and news) and BigPond Movies (including pay-per-view). Channels available on the BigPond ...

Comcast Unit Shares Cisco's Video Spotlight

Light Reading

That, according to thePlatform VP of Sales and Marketing Marty Roberts, means blending online video's dynamic navigation systems and personalized recommendation engines with the carrier-class reliability of provider-managed cable and IPTV systems.

Tivus Teams With Falcon IP/Complete

Marketwire (press release)

"Falcon is committed to working with Tivus to advance HD IPTV to North America's hotel properties," commented Shane Pierce, Falcon IP/Complete's CEO. "Tivus can be assured of the same level of service and expertise all of our customers have come to ..