

March 2, 2011, Daily News

Wednesday, 02 March 2011

Last Updated Wednesday, 02 March 2011

Asia-Pacific to account for nearly half of global IPTV subscribers by 2014

Rapid tv news

Asia-Pacific is set to take the IPTV market by storm, according to research by analyst firm RNCOS. The report, Global IPTV Market Forecast to 2014, shows that with promising IPTV subscriber growth taking place in countries including China, South Korea, ...

FyreTV Partners with Toya, Expands IPTV Services

AVN News (press release)

MIAMI—FyreTV has announced that it is expanding overseas and has now collaborated with Toya, Poland's fifth largest cable network, to fully integrate an OTT (Over The Top) service into a hybrid cable/IPTV system, guaranteeing viewers simple and ...

What is IPTV? Here's your primer

Globe and Mail

In an effort to stem the losses in landline and long distance telephone revenue, the telecommunications giants are fighting back by trying to lure the cable company's television subscribers by offering IPTV — or Internet Protocol television — a ...

New Streaming Protocol for IPTV Enables High-Quality Live Transmissions

PR.com (press release)

ReCaster server appliances offer a turn-key solution that enables optimized transmission of IPTV streams in real-time. By using the ReCaster Streaming Protocol (RSP), reliability and data rates of streaming live content in wireless networks or along ...

UTStarcom to Host Conference Call to Discuss Fourth Quarter and Full Year 2010 ...

PR Newswire (press release)

UTStarcom is interactive, IP-based network solutions in iDTV, IPTV, Internet TV and Broadband for cable and telecom operators. The Company sells its solutions to operators in both emerging and established telecommunications and cable markets around the ...

CTC to bow TV service in Germany

Variety

CTC Intl. will be transmitted via the Kartina TV IPTV network, which will have a one-year right to sublicense the channel across other European IPTV networks. Germany is the third country in which CTC Media has launched its international service in the ...

SIGM Falls 5% Despite Q4 Beat

Barron's (blog)

Revenue was down 9% from Q3, which the company attributed to a "moderate declines" in products for IPTV, so-called "Connected Home" technology, and its "VXP video processors." CEO Thinh Tran remarked that the decline was "more than offset by the ...

Tivus Executes MOU With Host Hotels & Resorts, Inc.

Marketwire (press release)

"We are of course eager to complete deployment of our unique, ad-insertion HD IPTV in certain Host properties," commented Shiva Prakash, Tivus' president and chief executive officer. "In the terms of the agreement, on successful completion of the ...