

March 4, 2011, Daily News

Friday, 04 March 2011

Last Updated Friday, 04 March 2011

AT&T's Wireless IPTV Set-Top Cleared For Takeoff

Multichannel News

By Todd Spangler -- Multichannel News, 3/4/2011 5:06:23 PM The Federal Communications Commission has approved an IPTV set-top designed by Cisco Systems for AT&T's U-verse TV service that receives video over a home wireless Wi-Fi connection. ...

TDS Telecom will expand IPTV and managed services in 2011

FierceTelecom

Similar to AT&T (NYSE: T) and CenturyLink (NYSE: CTL), TDS sees that when it sells a triple play set of voice, DSL data and video, whether it's IPTV or satellite, customers are less likely to defect to cable. "We have achieved the highest rates of ... MediaTube plans to launch IPTV in Toronto market by end of summer

The Wire Report

MediaTube Corp. is counting on the differentiated offerings of Internet protocol television (IPTV) to help launch a competitive new broadcasting distribution service in the greater Toronto and London areas this year. "We have similar capabilities with ...

Shortlist Announced for IP&TV Awards 2011

Business Wire (press release)

To view book your tickets for the IP&TV Gala Dinner Awards or to register for the conference, go to the IP&TV World Forum website at www.iptv-forum.com or call +44 (0) 20 7017 4850. Informa Telecoms & Media is the leading provider of business ...

IPTV SDK presents providers with enhanced business proposition

Rapid tv news

Reinforcing the development of a cloud-based platform to deliver new TV and video services to the connected home, IPTV technology provider Netgem is to launch a Home Cloud Software Development Kit (SDK). The SDK will support Netgem's IPTV2.0 strategy ...

World Stream Telecommunication to Show Ethnic IPTV Live Project at IPTV World ...

PR.com (press release)

Offering visitors an in-depth sight of a successfully running ethnic IPTV project World Stream Telecommunication is going to run different shows of a Russian IPTV all-in-one solution. London, United Kingdom, March 04, 2011 --(PR.com)-- IPTV – the word ...

TV3 launches new IPTV channel Rapid tv news

Spain's regional broadcaster TV3 has launched a new live Internet channel to offer the viewers live images of what is happening in the region of Catalunya. The broadcaster installed a group of cameras in many different venues across the region and ...

Croatian IPTV service expands reach

Broadband TV News

The offer, which includes the IPTV service Iskon.TV and can be received in DUO or TRIO (two and three service) packages, is being made available at a discount of 30% for the first three months. A HBO package is also being offered at a discount for the .. ZST Digital Networks (ZSTN) Posts Q4 and FY 2010 Results, 2011 Guidance

International Business Times

"Our strong financial results were driven by the rapid growth of our GPS products and services and the continued growth in our core IPTV market and cable TV equipment. Moreover, the growth in sales of our high margin GPS products and services and ... BBC: IPTV shouldn't be restricted to YouView

TechRadar UK

As the BBC is a partner in YouView, an IPTV over set-top box service that has had numerous delays and will now be out in 2012, most thought that this is where the BBC will be pushing its connected content to the mainstream – but this does not seem to ... "IPTV is the platform of the future"

IPTV News

The number of IPTV subscribers worldwide will double over the next five years to exceed 70mn by the end of 2015, compared to 36.5mn at the end of 2010, according to a new report from IMS Research. "Most of the current growth for the platform is centred ...

YouView chief defends 2012 delay

Digital Spy

By Andrew Laughlin, Technology Reporter YouView chief executive Richard Halton has today defended the delay to the BBC-led joint venture, claiming that the new IPTV platform will be "worth the wait". Speaking at the Digital TV Group (DTG) Summit in ...