

March 19, 2011, Daily News

Saturday, 19 March 2011

Last Updated Saturday, 19 March 2011

Digital TV subscription number rises 26000 in January&Irm;

Budapest Business Journal

The number of their digital subscribers with cable or IPTV connections rose by 14000 to 571000 during the month. The number with satellite connections

Dreampark gets first African deal in Egypt

IT News Africa

EAMS is the Egyptian provider of IPTV services and, according to a press statement from the companies, will showcase Dreampark's position as the leading IPTV middleware provider in Europe. The deal was based on the coverage area of Nilesat Satellite, ...

Lenovo Targets Connected TV Market in China&Irm;

Telecoms Insight (registration)

If this foray into IPTV services is successful, BMI would expect to see Lenovo ... The Chinese IPTV market is set to undergo phenomenal growth over the next

Allegro DVT Has New Features for its AL2000 N-Screen OTT Transcoder&Irm;

Online News Website

Allegro DVT unveils lots of new features for the AL2000 Live Transcoder at IPTV-WF 2011. Allegro DVT extends support for Verimatrix with a Generic DRM

Optibase Announces New Version of MGES 6000 H.264 HD/SD Quad ...&Irm;

TMC Net - Deepika Mala

To help operators securely deliver Full Motion Video and IPTV (News - Alert) content over IP, the new release also provides built-in AES-128 and 256 bit

IneoQuest, Envivio Partner to Bring Quality Assurance to CDNs and ...&Irm;

TMC Net - Rajani Baburajan

Recently, Envivio announced the release of its third generation Envivio 4Caster C4 live encoder/transcoder for mobile TV, internet TV and IPTV services.

Microsoft, the forgotten years: photos&Irm;

ZDNet Australia - Jay Greene

Microsoft has spent billions building a TV business, a market it continues to go after with its Mediaroom IPTV software. But back in the dawn of Internet TV