

April 5, 2011, Daily News

Tuesday, 05 April 2011

Last Updated Tuesday, 05 April 2011

Vodafone Portugal adds new apps to Casa TV

IPTV News

Vodafone Portugal has added a number of new interactive applications to its IPTV service 'Casa TV', including a gaming app and the ability to share what the user is currently watching on Facebook, email or MMS. The telco has also added a new 'Traffic' ...

EXFO Adds Web Browser And IPTV Testing Capabilities to its VDSL2 Test Set

TMC Net

According to company officials, with the new IPTV test suite, technicians can save their most commonly used channels to automatically join the selected channels and verify their availability as well as their quality of service (QoS). ...

Toshiba Places: Internet TV service officially launches

T3

First seen at IFA last year Toshiba has fully introduced Toshiba Places, its integrated IPTV solution. As well as offering the usual catch-up selection like iPlayer, it's an open platform service that lets you share video and music between Toshiba TVs ...

FOXTEL deploys high-speed file transfer for content contribution

Broadcast Engineering

Australian cable, satellite and IPTV service provider FOXTEL is transitioning contribution of SD and HD content to a high-speed, file-based IT approach based on a suite of file delivery and workflow management software from Aspera. ...

Team National Selects NeuLion's IPTV Platform to Deliver Live and On-Demand ...

DigitalJournal.com (press release)

Content will be delivered to Team National's audience of over 300000 members via NeuLion's IPTV set top box. In addition, Team National TV will also feature a Team National video-on-demand channel, updated with weekly content, featuring numerous videos ...

Samsung IPTV, Blu-ray Nabs BigPond Movies

ChannelNews

"With automatic rental periods and the ability to browse through a variety of titles ranging from the latest TV shows to Hollywood classics, BigPond Movies really is bringing the DVD store to living rooms across the country," Telstra's Director of IPTV ...

Disney Launches ABC TV On Demand in Germany

Hollywood Reporter

ABC TV On Demand, which goes online mid-April on Vodafone's IPTV offering Vodafone TV, will offer VOD episodes of current and past ABC series including Grey's Anatomy, Desperate Housewives, Criminal Minds and Lost. Starting immediately, Vodafone TV ...