

April 6, 2011, Daily News

Wednesday, 06 April 2011

Last Updated Wednesday, 06 April 2011

IN Media Announces Volume Shipments of IPTV Software and Tablet PCs

PR Newswire (press release)

PK) have begun to ship volume units of its IPTV Software and Tablet PC's worldwide. The company today also announced that it has acquired the rights to 2000 Hollywood Films that will be included in future product shipments "We are excited to be ...

IN Media Ships IPTV Software and Tablet PCs Worldwide

TMC Net

By Rajani Baburajan, TMCnet Contributor IN Media Corp announced it has started shipping volume units of its Internet Protocol Television (IPTV (News - Alert)) Software and Tablet PCs worldwide. The company also announced the acquisition of the rights ...

Telstra Look To Mimic Netflix

ChannelNews

By David Richards | Wednesday | 06/04/2011 The head of Telstra's BigPond TV operation, has said that the ideal entertainment delivery model for Australia is similar to what Netflix is doing in the USA, with some insiders tipping that Telstra will ...

Multilevel Marketing Firm Tees Up Over-The-Top Cable Package

Multichannel News

Team National, based in Davie, Fla., worked with IPTV technology and encoding provider NeuLion to create Team National TV, a 25-channel television service delivered over broadband connections that includes such networks as Fox News Channel, ...

Panasonic Activates Connected TV Apps

InteractiveTV Today [itvt]

Panasonic took the wraps of its Viera Connect IPTV platform at the Consumer Electronics Show in January, offering viewers that buy Viera HDTVs access to several applications, including Netflix, Amazon Video On Demand, YouTube, Skype, Facebook and ...

Panasonic Execs on VIERA HDTV: Picture Quality Matters Most (But Apps are Nice ...

Bigpicturebigsound.com

Panasonic is extending online content access even to many of its entry-level sets with a streamlined set of pre-defined apps and content streaming options they are calling "Easy IPTV." This is a basic bundle of the essential streaming services ...