

April 14, 2011, Daily News

Thursday, 14 April 2011

Last Updated Thursday, 14 April 2011

Is Microsoft a sleeping TV giant about to wake up?

IPTV News

The company is already providing the software for many of the world's largest IPTV deployments, as well as targeting the cable and satellite TV operator market with Media Center systems based on Windows Embedded Standard 7. The rich potential of the ...

Amdocs Survey: Time to Market Grows in Importance

PR Newswire (press release)

Forty-five percent of service providers report that the increasing demand for support of third-party services such as app stores or IPTV and additional connected devices, has increased time to market. Fifty-nine percent of companies report that the ...

Paid TV subscribers up 6 percent in 2010

CNET (blog)

Elsewhere around the world, cable customers were migrating to satellite or IPTV, the research firm said. Growth in the paid TV business in 2010 has helped stem concerns that the market was heading for a protracted downturn. ... Intel:

IPTV a potentially disruptive technology

ARNnet

IPTV is slowly gaining momentum in Australia and it has the potential to completely change the way the broadcast industry operates in Australia, according to Intel general manager, Philip Cronin. Speaking at an American Chamber of Commerce lunch, ...

Monogram Energy Inc.'s/Marquis Tech Holdings' Releases Revenue Projections for ...

Business Wire (press release)

Through Astrolobe Technology, (a wholly owned subsidiary of Marquis Tech Holdings, Inc.), the Company will begin offering wireless IPTV services in Q4 2011. The Company recently announced Astrolobe Technology executives have signed a joint venture ...

Hospitality sector gains with IPTV platform

EE Times India

The worldwide hospitality market for IPTV set-top boxes is set reach a revenue milestone of Rs.3424.66 crore ($0.75 billion) in 2015, growing at a CAGR of 16 per cent, according to an IMS Research study entitled "IPTV: A Global Market Analysis & 2011 ... Lithuania's TEO adds Facebook, Flickr to IPTV service

IPTV News

Lithuanian telco TEO has added Facebook, Flickr and RSS feeds to its IPTV service 'Interactive GALA', enabling subscribers to access their social network, share and view photos and read the latest news headlines on their TV screen. ...