

May 1, 2011, Daily News

Sunday, 01 May 2011

Last Updated Sunday, 01 May 2011

Partner expands Orange agreement with France Telecom
Globes

France Telecom is also a leading global IPTV services provider, ... Partner, which plans to provide IPTV services, can collaborate with France Telecom in

NBN will provide greater media convergence: Samsung

ARNnet - Hafizah Osman - 4 hours ago

At the KANZ Broadband Summit, Samsung Electronics group senior product manager – AV, Evan Manolis, said its recently launched Smart Hub IPTV takes TV ...

Turner's Top Channels in Mongolia on Univision's IPTV Platform&Irm;
UB Post

Turner Broadcasting System Asia Pacific has launched a selection of its top channels in Mongolia, a groundbreaking agreement with the country's first IPTV ...

Telstra now needs to make its AFL rights pay

The Australian - Simon Canning

He said Telstra would use the new rights to push IPTV and its T-Box and that bundling would clearly be an integral part of the offer. ...

ADB lowers FY guidance on still weak economy

Telecompaper (subscription)

Most of the demand came from cable, satellite and broadband segments, while IPTV and terrestrial lagged behind of the original forecast.

Shut up, the footy's on the internet&Irm;

Hydrapinion - Adam Turner

Every AFL game live via the internet is a watershed moment for IPTV in Australia. It's not easy being a footy fan when the free-to-air .

Telstra wins AFL streaming rights (Australia)

Wireless Federation

This may also extend to other IPTV-enabled devices connected to Telstra BigPond ... Furthermore, Telstra will further evolve AFL online, mobile and IPTV

Australian Football League Signs $1.3 Billion TV Deal&Irm;

Hollywood Reporter - Pip Bulbeck

Every match live each week will be streamed to Telstra mobile customers on its Next G platform and one live game per week streamed via IPTV to Telstra TBox ...