

May 3, 2011, Daily News

Tuesday, 03 May 2011

Last Updated Tuesday, 03 May 2011

Cord-cutting "not a death knell" for pay-TV

IPTV News

The report states that US cable operators saw over 2mn customers evaporate in 2010, while IPTV and satellite operators actually gained customers over the same period, more than compensating for cable's losses and netting a "modest" 273000 new ...

No IPTV surge during Royal Wedding, says ISP KC

Top10.com

According to the firm, relatively few broadband customers appear to have watched the ceremony via IPTV services, despite the availability of live streaming. Nick Thompson, Director of Consumer Services at KC, commented that TV had remained the medium ...

RTI: MTNL Delhi Has 5910 IPTV Connections, ARPPU Rs.298; Launches FTTH With FUP

MediaNama.com

By Anupam Saxena on May 3rd, 2011 | View Comments As of February 2011, Mahanagar Telephone Nigam Limited's Delhi unit has 5910 IPTV subscribers in the city, with an Average Revenue Per Paying User (ARPPU) of Rs.298 per month, MediaNama has learned, ...

Aurora acquires DOCSIS/IPTV specialist GoBackTV

ConnectedPlanet

Cable TV operators have begun to expand DOCSIS 3.0 architectures that get them closer to an enabling IPTV services, and there has been much hype around IPTV-over-cable in recent years, though the market probably has moved more gradually than initial ...

Quantenna Delivers Industry-Leading Performance with Fourth-Generation 802.11n ...

SYS-CON Media (press release)

Quantenna's QHS7xx family of Full-11n™ chipsets delivers up to 600 Mbps of bandwidth in a cost-optimized fourth-generation solution that enables the development and deployment of retail products and carrier services for delivering IPTV and other ...

IPTV, NBN, Power Management Live Presentations At CEDIA 2011

SmartHouse

In an effort to help the consumer electronics and specialist installer industry understand where technology is going ChannelNews has lined up a series of speakers to talk on marketing, IPTV, Pay TV, Digital Radio and the way in which installers can ...

Deutsche Telekom to offer Entertain television service via satellite

IPTV News

Deutsche Telekom has confirmed that it will be launching a satellite TV service this summer, enabling it to achieve near-nationwide coverage of its television service 'Entertain' (also delivered via IPTV). The service will be called 'Entertain Sat', ...

Orange sees European TV subs rise sharply

IPTV News

In France, the telco had reached 3.711mn customers for its pay-TV services (delivered via IPTV and satellite) by the end of the first quarter of this year, up 28% from one year previously, while in Poland the number of pay-TV customers (again served by ...

