

May 6, 2011, Daily News

Friday, 06 May 2011

Last Updated Friday, 06 May 2011

Bell Aliant reports further fibre connections

The Wire Report

The company said growth in its fibre service drove substantially all of its IPTV net customer additions during the quarter. IPTV revenues reached $9 million from a total of 54000 television customers at the end of March, a release said. ...

Bell Aliant expects some short term pain but sees more growth for TV services

The Canadian Press

Sheriff said revenue from the company's Internet protocol TV service was $9 million and 4400 new customers were added in the quarter, bringing the total to 54000 IPTV customers or about 14 per cent penetration. "We expect to see strong TV growth going ...

Smart TVs Will Accelerate the Move to Hybrid Video Services

PR Newswire (press release)

Connected TVs Will Help Drive Big Changes in Video Services examines the potential impact of connected TVs, also known as smart TVs, on the video services business from the perspective of IPTV technology suppliers, including those also developing ...

CenturyLink updates on acquisition integration, IPTV thoughts

ConnectedPlanet

The telco also said it is working to expand its nascent IPTV services in existing markets, but does not yet have any plans for rolling out IPTV in its newly-acquired Qwest territories. A little more than a month after the Qwest deal closed, ... AFL rights deal the first battle in latest TV turf war

Sydney Morning Herald

Included in Foxtel's package is the right to show AFL games live over internet television, or IPTV. Telstra bought the right to show one game a week over its service, the T-Box. It may be a minority practice now but as televisions are increasingly ... Internode Adds Billion Routers to IPTV-Ready Router Line-up

TMC Net

IPTV (News - Alert) has allowed people to interact with their TVs while allowing them to access additional functions. In order to create a better TV–based person–to- person interactive environment, Internode has added two award-winning Billion routers ...

Interim report January - March 2011

Reuters (press release)

The revenue split between our main business areas remained approximately the same, Broadcast and Media Networks 63 % (69 %), DDT 34 % (30 %) and IPTV Cable TV 3 % (1 %). We continue to win DDT business and early in the quarter we were selected for a ...

CenturyLink has no immediate plans to extend IPTV to existing Qwest customers

FierceTelecom

CenturyLink (NYSE: CTL) may gain a benefit from adding Qwest's broadband subscribers to its fold, but one thing it won't be doing in the near term is extending its IPTV service to existing Qwest customers anytime soon. This revelation about IPTV, ...

ZST Digital Networks, Inc. Announces First Quarter 2011 Results

PR Newswire (press release)

Sales revenue from our IPTV, GPS and cable TV network equipment segments accounted for approximately 39%, 28% and 33% of total net revenues, respectively. In addition, GPS related service revenue increased over 300% year-over-year to $2.5 million, ... iTablet Bluetooth keyboard has an integrated touchpad

CNET Asia

When the situation makes a regular keyboard impractical, such as surfing on an IPTV from the couch, these handheld devices provide a nice compromise between usability and portability. The iTablet Thumb Keyboard, however, stands out by not only fitting ...

Telekom grows with IPTV

Rapid tv news

German telco Deutsche Telekom has won more than 100000 new customers for the IPTV platform Entertain on its

ADSL broadband network in Q1 2011, increasing the total number of connected subscribers to 1.3 million. By the end of 2012, Telekom hopes to ... Chinese IPTV market to witness massive growth

Rapid tv news

The number of IPTV subscribers in China is estimated to grow at a CAGR of around 29% during 2012 – 2014, according to analyst firm RNCOS. Its latest report, Chinese IPTV Market Analysis, says the Chinese IPTV market is the most attractive and largest ...