

May 15, 2011, Daily News

Sunday, 15 May 2011

Last Updated Sunday, 15 May 2011

Optus set to bring TV into the home

The Australian

The Optus deal puts back on track FetchTV's ambition to be the IPTV provider to every major internet service provider bar Telstra. The company expects to be able this year to market its service to two million potential customers capable of receiving ...

MTV Networks expands German HD line-up

Rapid tv news - Jörn Krieger - 19 hours ago

... VIVA HD and Comedy Central HD/Nickelodeon HD will be available on the IPTV Entertain on the ADSL broadband network of national telco Deutsche Telekom.

YouView Has Sugar In And Technicolor Out

World Internet TV on PC (blog) - 13 hours ago

The YouView video IPTV project that recently saw Apprentice Alan Sugar installed as chairman has now seen one of the project's seven set-top box ...

TTNET to offer 'quadruple play' starting from June

Hurriyet Daily News - Ercan Ersoy

The company started Wednesday offering Internet TV, or IPTV, initially on ... The company's IPTV product, known as Tivibu, was designed by video software .

Panasonic launches new range of Smart Viera TVs, regular TVs run ...

ElectricPig.co.uk - Nick Marshall

Today, the company unveiled its new line of Smart Viera TVs, complete with IPTV, Facebook, apps, games and Skype calls. At launch Panasonic will offer ABC's ...

Sony blitzkrieging media with new Bravia campaign

Current.com.au - Patrick Avenell

Unlike its rivals, such as Panasonic yesterday, which have talked up IPTV, Sony is focusing on the basic function of the TV: picture quality. ...

SK Broadband nearing 9 mln customers‎

Telecompaper (subscription)

However, SK Broadband shed 7729 IPTV customers for the fourth consecutive month and ended April with a total of 904404 IPTV subscribers.