May 17, 2011, Daily News

Tuesday, 17 May 2011
Last Updated Tuesday, 17 May 2011

FetchTV eyes top 10 ISPs to take on Telstra

Computerworld Australia

Australian IPTV start-up FetchTV has flagged plans to ink deals with the 10 largest local service providers outside of Telstra by the end of the year in efforts to form a competitive “coalition” against the incumbent telco's popular T-Box service. ... RomTelecom Powers On-Demand TV Services With Espial MediaBase

CanadianBusiness.com

By Canada NewsWire | May 17, 2011 OTTAWA, May 17 /CNW/ - Espial®, a leader in On-Demand TV solutions, today announced that RomTelecom has now surpassed 35000 IPTV subscribers with access to on-demand TV services powered by Espial MediaBase. ...

 Telekom Entertain leads German IPTV market

Broadband TV News

With over 1.3 million subscribers, Deutsche Telekom's service Entertain is the clear leader in the German IPTV   market. 02/Hansenet's Alice Home TV lags far behind with just 79000   connected homes. Vodafone has yet to publish its first figures for its ...

 Mariner and BSE Forge Strategic Alliance to Market its xVu Monitoring Solution

TMC Net

By Madhubanti Rudra, TMCnet Contributor Mariner, a well known provider of IP video solutions and technologies for the IPTV (News - Alert) industry, has formed a strategic partnership with Border States Electric (BSE), the ninth largest electrical ...

Report: IPTV Set to Dominate Urban Areas in CEE by 2017

TMC Net

By Mini Swamy Frost and Sullivan's analysis of the IPTV (News - Alert) Markets in Central and Eastern Europe (CEE) revealed that revenues in this market will boom by 2017. The market earned revenues of €90 million in 2010 and is expected to touch €270 ... IPTV Coalition: FetchTV To Nab Top Telstra Rivals, TPG Next

ChannelNews

Just last week IPTV provider FetchTV announced a deal with its biggest rival, Optus, set to kick off on screens later this year. However, now it seems it is looking to pen deals with every one of its top ten rivals including the likes of TPG, ...

IPTV operators name key STB features

IPTV News

A survey by Infonetics Research has identified the set-top box features which IPTV service providers feel are most important to them, with strong competition and the need to increase Average Revenue Per User (ARPU) believed to have spurred ...

 AT&T Lets Multiroom DVR Users Pause Live TV On Any Set-Top

Multichannel News

AT&T uses Microsoft's Mediaroom IPTV platform as the foundation for U-verse TV. The U-verse Total Home DVR lets subscribers record up to four standard-definition and up to two HD shows at once on a single DVR, as well as record, manage and play back ...