

May 30, 2011, Daily News

Monday, 30 May 2011

Last Updated Monday, 30 May 2011

BT to embrace IPTV as it upgrades broadband network to multicast

Register

By Faultline • Get more from this author British Telecom will change the bulk of its broadband network to use multicast routers as from next year – this will mean that full IPTV services, using quality of service protocols, could then be launched for ...

Forget set top boxes, what about accessibility?

ABC Technology and Games

The way we watch television has changed dramatically with IPTV services. Unfortunately access to closed captions has not. Credit: Pgiarn (iStockphoto) The ongoing political skirmish over the Federal Government's initiative to provide digital set top ...

Swisscom boosts IPTV subscribers with mobile play

Rapid tv news

The IPTV platform Swisscom TV which Switzerland's national telco Swisscom is offering on its ADSL broadband network, has reached the 500000 customer mark and will be further expanded with a mobile video offering. The service, which launched in November ...

Belarus telco extends IPTV offer

Broadband TV News

The Belarusian incumbent telco Beltelecom has completed the upgrade of its IPTV service TV ZALA, extending support into regional centres. As a result, according to Telegeography, it is now able to offer such additional services as VOD, time shifting ...

Telekom Austria expands IPTV platform

Rapid tv news

Austria's national telco A1 Telekom Austria has extended the TV line-up on the IPTV platform on its ADSL broadband network. The telco will launch twenty new channels to the basic package of A1 Kabel TV (formerly called aonTV) which now contains more ...

TIME Q1 net profit up 22% to RM23mil

Malaysia Star

Chief executive officer Afzal Abdul Rahim said during the quarter, the company inked a commercial agreement with Astro, where TIME would provide the required 100% fibre network for its IPTV delivery. “Astro Beyond IPTV bundled with TIME fibre broadband ...

Research and Markets: Austria - Digital Media Market - Overview ...

Business Wire (press release)

Cable and DSL networks support popular demand for bundled services offerings including IPTV, VoD and interactive TV. Digital services have been available ...

Is an Optus box coming to challenge the FoXbox 360?

iTWire - Alex Zaharov-Reutt

At least Foxtel on Xbox 360 users won't be so badly treated, they'll be suffering no "chopped off" sides but instead will see an IPTV version of Foxtel in

Foxtel via 360 – Now quota free

Crikey (blog) - Dan Barrett

Xbox 360 and T-Box distribution has provided flexibility in making their service available via IPTV. With an Internet and networked Xbox/T-Box,