

June 7, 2011, Daily News

Tuesday, 07 June 2011

Last Updated Wednesday, 08 June 2011

Microsoft confirms live TV for the Xbox

IPTV News

Microsoft has confirmed that it will start delivering live television services direct to the Xbox 360 game console in multiple markets around the world this autumn, with a number of content deals already signed. Ending months if not years of ...

Vivicast Media Bags Wild and Untamed Interactive 3D for the Americas

PR Newswire (press release)

With content licensing that crosses multiple platforms and borders, Vivicast brings a suite of linear channels to viewers who want programming for multiple user devices like tablets and smart devices, as well as traditional IPTV and cable deployments. ...

IPTV subs in Asia Pacific to nudge 100mn by 2016

IPTV News

Out of the 388mn digital TV homes to be added between 2010 and 2016, digital cable is expected to contribute the most with 188mn new subscribers, followed by IPTV with 85mn, then DTT with 68mn, and pay DTH is expected to come last with an additional ...

VDSL Port Shipments Grow to Record Level in the First Quarter, According to ...

Sacramento Bee

"With ADSL being a mature technology with limited bandwidth capabilities, many service providers are upgrading their networks with high-speed VDSL or PON equipment to enable new, high-bandwidth intensive services such as IPTV," said Tam Dell'Oro, ...

Report: Pace, Moto battle for STB lead; hybrids set to grow

CED Magazine

Market research firm Infonetics Research released some of the results from its first-quarter 2011 cable, satellite, IPTV and OTT set-top boxes and subscribers market size, market share and forecast report. Among the results, Motorola is leading the ...

Report: Pace, Moto battle for STB lead; hybrids set to grow

‎CED Magazine - Mike Robuck

Market research firm Infonetics Research released some of the results from its first-quarter 2011 cable, satellite, IPTV and OTT set-top boxes and ...

Three-way shootout: IPTV

Sydney Morning Herald

Telstra director, IPTV and pay TV, Ben Kinealy says consumers want choice. "We took the decision to be everywhere - on Foxtel, online, T-Box and smart TVs. That is so powerful for the customer," he says. BigPond TV on tablets will be next. ...

Anevia Marks its Participation in World IPv6 Day by Announcing IPv6 Compliant ...

Benzinga

Anevia also announced today that its hardware and software products for IPTV, over-the-top TV (OTT), and Video-on-Demand (VOD) are IPv6 compliant. Anevia has upgraded and tested its ViaLive, ViaMotion and Flamingo products so that its customers benefit ...

NBN: Is $109 the magic triple play price?

iTWire

By Renai LeMay Most of Australia's major fixed-line telcos have standardised their pricing on mid-range bundled broadband, telephone and IPTV plans around the $109 mark. opinion After Telstra revealed plans yesterday to at least double the data quotas ...

Boxee Adding Blinkbox, iPlayer For European Services

‎paidContent:UK - Robert Andrews

Back in March, paidContent:UK revealed the IPTV service Boxee, after taking new funding, hired Wil Stephens to lead a European push.