

July 8, 2011, Daily News

Friday, 08 July 2011

Last Updated Friday, 08 July 2011

International Telecommunications Union launches IPTV app challenge

IPTV News

The International Telecommunications Union (ITU) has launched a competition in which it is offering a cash prize of US$ 10000 to an individual or SME which develops the best and most innovative IPTV application based on ITU standards. ...

Research and Markets: Czech Republic - Digital Media Market - Overview ...

SunHerald.com

The uptake of IPTV services is growing on the back of more affordable broadband access while the cable TV market has undergone consolidation to create a major player sizeable enough to compete effectively against the telecoms incumbent. ...

ITU app challenge for IPTV

Gadget

ITU's latest global Application Challenge is encouraging developers around the world to create innovative IPTV apps running over ITU standards. Applicants are encouraged to think creatively about the IPTV platform and the opportunities it offers. ...

Open IPTV Forum Appoints New President, Vice President and Marketing Director

TMC Net

By Madhubanti Rudra, TMCnet Contributor Open IPTV Forum (OIPF), an industry consortium working toward accelerating the deployment of IPTV technologies, announced the appointment of its president and vice presidents. The non-profit has appointed Dr. ...

Interactive TV News Round-Up (II): Flingo, Hulu, ITU

InteractiveTV Today [itvt]

The International Telecommunications Union (ITU) has announced its latest international Application Challenge, which is intended to encourage developers to build IPTV apps that run on ITU standards. "Applicants are encouraged to think creatively about ...

FilmOn.com Launches Space Program with NASA HD

PR Newswire (press release)

FilmOn.com/, the first and largest internet-based high-definition television service, announced today that the much publicized final Space Shuttle Launch will be carried on its Web and Mobile Based IPTV platform for free on the NASA HD Channel. ...

ABI Research: Assured Growth in Asia Hampered by Regulatory Hurdles

TMC Net

Fiber broadband, IPTV (News - Alert) and DSL service revenues are expected to increase from $52.5 billion in 2010 to $70.5 billion in 2016. Although some decline in broadband DSL is predicted, it is likely to be more than offset by significant revenue ...