

July 15, 2011, Daily News

Friday, 15 July 2011

Last Updated Friday, 15 July 2011

Australians Watch More TV Amidst IPTV

SmartHouse

By Tony Ibrahim | Friday | 15/07/2011 Commercial free-to-air television is enjoying longer view times, but with emerging alliances between TV manufacturers, IPTV companies and online stores, will it continue to dominate? ...

Canal+ Sport and TV Breizh lead cabsat-IPTV channels

Rapid tv news

Canal+'s subs Canal+ Sport and TF1 affiliate TV Breizh are dominating theme channels broadcast on satellite, cable and IPTV. According to latest Mediamétrie survey MediamatThématique, monitored from January to June 2011, both channels are sharing a 0.8% ...

Asia-Pacific leads set-top box growth

Eetasia.com (subscription)

The study presents an overview of global STB shipments across seven video platforms: digital cable, digital satellite (pay services and free-to-air), IPTV, ...

Fiber Broadband Subscriptions to Double by the End of 2011, Says ABI Research

Virtual-Strategy Magazine

Extending fiber broadband coverage not only increases speed but also allows the roll out of services including video on demand (VOD) and IPTV. ABI Research estimates that worldwide fiber broadband subscriber numbers will more than double in 2016 to 142 ...

CimTel and Cross Pick EXA Powered Calix E7 Ethernet Service Access Platform

TMC Net

Using E7-2 ESAPs and the 700GE family of ONTs across the region, CimTel plans to deliver advanced voice, data, and IPTV services using GPON technology, and 10 gigabit Ethernet (10GE) for robust access transport services. And, according to Cross BIP, ... TRAI asks six broadcasters to adhere to its tariff order

The Hindu

Sectoral regulator TRAI has directed six leading broadcasters, including Zee, ESPN Star and Star Den, not to charge from DTH and IPTV operators more than what is allowed under its tariff order. In separate letters to the broadcasters, ...

mio TV Adds to Lineup

World Screen

By Mansha Daswani SINGAPORE: SingTel's IPTV platform mio TV has expanded its channel lineup with Travel Channel, the all-rugby Setanta Sports and the Indian news network TIMES Now. "We actively seek to provide a well-rounded selection of channels and ...

iPhone and iPad Get White Label TV and Video App from Vision IPTV

TMC Net

By Calvin Azuri Vision IPTV (News - Alert) recently announced that it was launching an extension of its services to online and offline broadcasters. The company will launch its white label video app and player solution that will help broadcasters ...