

July 27, 2011, Daily News

Wednesday, 27 July 2011

Last Updated Wednesday, 27 July 2011

Entertain IPTV service to carry exclusive 3D channel

Telecompaper (subscription)

Telekom Deutschland has announced that the Entertain IPTV service will carry the '3D The Channel' 3D channel from 01 August. The channel will be available at no extra charge to all Entertain customers with VDSL connections and a 3D-enabled TV. ...

Informa: connected TV faces formidable challenges, despite early success

IPTV News

A major industry survey by Informa Telecoms & Media (publisher of IPTV News) has found that despite making strong early progress, connected TV services still face a number of challenges, and there is little consensus amongst the different players on ...

Deutsche Telekom expands IPTV platform with 3D channel

Rapid tv news

German telco Deutsche Telekom will expand the TV line-up of its IPTV platform Entertain on 1 August 2011 with 3D The Channel. The new service will show programmes covering sports, fashion, lifestyle, events and travel in three-dimensional format. ...

Personalized, Portable, On-Demand IPTV Services Are On the Way---Infonetics ...

TMC Net

By Madhubanti Rudra Infonetics' newly published newsletter, "IPTV (News - Alert) services getting highly personalized, highly integrated, portable, on-demand," highlighted on some interesting aspects of how IPTV service providers are responding or ...

TV apps getting used on a weekly basis

IPTV News

A recent survey by Informa Telecoms & Media (publisher of IPTV News) found that attitudes to connected TV applications have softened considerably in the past few years: they are now believed to be an important addition to connected TVs, although there ..

Live From The Independent Show: Fear Or Feast Moving Forward?

Communications Technology

"Tier 1 MSOs may go national (with IPTV offerings), forgetting that loyalty," she said. Her partner on the panel, Miller Tabak & Co. analyst David Joyce, believes software will override hardware when it comes to how MSOs will offer new services and, ...

Microsoft Is Taking IPTV Serious on the Xbox As Evidence by Its New Media Remote

eHomeUpgrade

By Alexander Grundner | July 27th, 2011 (0) Comments Besides the new, slim Bluetooth headset you may have seen on some of the gadget and gaming sites this week, Microsoft also unveiled a new Xbox 360 Media Remote. It, of course, has buttons the mimic ...