

Aug 10, 2011, Daily News

Wednesday, 10 August 2011

Last Updated Wednesday, 10 August 2011

Millionaire IPTV operators on the rise

Rapid tv news

The number of IPTV operators boasting one million subscribers or more worldwide is set to reach 25 by 2015. By this time, over a third of these video service providers will actually have managed to sign up over three million customers. ...

Matanuska Telephone Selects Comtrend for Large-Scale, Wireless IPTV Deployments

PR.com (press release)

Large, successful telephone company delivers IPTV with wireless adapters from Comtrend, bypassing traditional wiring that saves significant time and money. Irvine, CA, August 10, 2011 --(PR.com)-- Comtrend Corporation, a global supplier of advanced ...

Dutch Telfort launches IPTV service

Broadband TV News

Dutch telecoms operator Telfort has launched a full triple play offer including IPTV alongside its broadband and telephony services. The company, which is wholly owned by incumbent KPN, is using KPN's IPTV infrastructure. The new IPTV service is ...

Another KPN subsidiary launches IPTV

IPTV News

Dutch telco Telfort has launched a new IPTV service, offering 55 linear channels as well as time-shift features and catch-up TV from the three public channels Nederland 1, 2 and 3 on its basic package. The service is delivered over the infrastructure ...

Multiscreen services to drive robust growth for IPTV market

IPTV News

The worldwide IPTV market will grow over the next five years to reach US$49bn in service revenues and 113mn subscribers by 2015, with multiscreen video usage driving wireless services to new highs, according to a new report from Multimedia Research ...

SRT adds IPTV services in North Dakota

CED Magazine

By Brian Santo SRT Communications has begun delivering IPTV services using a combination of Microsoft Mediaroom and Zhone's MXK platform. SRT's network in North Dakota combines both ADSL2+ and fiber-to-the-home (FTTH) access networks. ...

Ukrtelecom applies to Radio and Television Council to get IPTV license for ...

Interfax

Kyiv, August 10 (Interfax-Ukraine) - PJSC Ukrtelecom has for the fourth time submitted an application to the National Television and Radio Broadcasting Council for a license as an IPTV service provider, Company Board Chairman Heorhiy Dzekon said at a ...

Worldwide IPTV Market to Touch $49 Billion in Service Revenues: MRG Report

TMC Net

By Rajani Baburajan, TMCnet Contributor Primarily driven by multi-screen video usage, the worldwide IPTV (News - Alert) market will grow to $49 billion in service revenues, according to MRG. There will be 113 million subscribers in 2015. ...

VITEC VP to Discuss Complete Tactical IPTV Systems for FMV Content ...

Business Wire (press release)

(BUSINESS WIRE)--VITEC, a leading provider of advanced video solutions, today announced that on Wednesday

August 17, Bill Cassidy, Associate VP of Optibase Sales at VITEC, will speak about Complete Tactical IPTV Systems at the "Beyond the Booth" ...

Android IPTV system targets set-top boxes

ElectronicsWeekly.com (blog)

The Russian company NetUP claims it is the first company to develop an Android-based IPTV system, NetUP.tv.

Features supported include: TV channels with pause and rewind options, TV on Demand, Electronic Program Guide (EPG), and Video on Demand. ...