

Sept 5, 2011, Daily News

Monday, 05 September 2011

Last Updated Monday, 05 September 2011

Apple quiet on rumours to launch a line of television sets

NEWS.com.au

Australian Communications and Media Authority media manager Emma Rossie told news.com.au that as IPTV continues to develop - we're "moving from dumb TV to smart TV". "ACMA is closely observing this area," she said. "Indeed it has recently released its ...

Verimatrix Secures Multi-Network Video for GO in Malta

MarketWatch (press release)

VCAS solutions provide comprehensive security for GO's delivery of combined IPTV and over-the-top (OTT) services over its broadband network. Advanced options available for the service include digital video recorder (DVR) functions that can be ...

French IPTV boost as 22m subscribe to high speed broadband

Rapid tv news

French IPTV will surely be a key beneficiary of the news that at the end of June 2011, 22 million people subscribed to high-speed or very high-speed broadband internet. According to French regulatory body Arcep, this represented 8% growth 1.5 million ...

Anevia deploys Pause TV Solution for Optimus in Portugal

MarketWatch (press release)

"In order to offer our customers advanced IPTV features and the best viewing experience possible we decided on Anevia's solution," said Ricardo Cerqueira, Service Architecture Manager at Optimus. "Thanks to Anevia's software as well as their IPTV ...

NBCUniversal Awards Miranda Multi-Year, Multi-Million Dollar Routing Solution ...

MarketWatch (press release)

MONTREAL, QUEBEC, Sep 05, 2011 (MARKETWIRE via COMTEX) -- Miranda Technologies Inc.

/quotes/zigman/35542 CA:MT -1.85% , a worldwide provider of production, playout and delivery systems for the television broadcast, cable, satellite and IPTV industries, ...

Video Server Market Held Back by Infrastructure Investment Costs ...

MarketWatch (press release)

Many countries are moving away from terrestrial networks to digital television, increasing prospects for IPTV (internet protocol television) providers, according to a new report available from companiesandmarkets.com. Increasing consumer demand for ...

: Massive launches N-Screen UI Framework Toolkit

TMC Net

The product solves several key problems that TV and video content providers currently face as they push to make their IPTV services available on a growing list of video-capable devices. According to Downey the Massivision Framework is also currently ...

IPTV's commercial break

Technology Spectator

George Gilder , Life after the Television IPTV is on the verge of hitting the buzzword bingo card. I've had a lot of questions on it recently, and figured a few key bits on the emerging sector is needed. 1. The technology is already in your lounge room ...