Sept 17, 2011, Daily News

Saturday, 17 September 2011
Last Updated Saturday, 17 September 2011

Poor connectivity; long startup time‎
Australian Macworld
IPTV (internet protocol television) is beginning to come into its own in Australia ... Fetch uses both an IPTV receiver and HD digital tuner to display both ...
Sony BDP-S380 Blu-ray player with IPTV‎Reg Hardware - Steve May
The BDP-S380 is IPTV enabled, doubles as a Super Audio CD player and is a decent media player to boot. Unlike the brand's two top BDP-S480/580 models it's ... Verizon FiOS revamps VOD in hunt for growth‎
Rapid tv news - MIchelle Clancy
The IPTV operator has inked content deals with all of the major studios; the first film to get the 48-hour treatment is 20th Century Fox's "X-Men: First ...

Eros signs 50-film deal with Korean Telecom‎
Business of Cinema
Eros has entered into a revenue sharing agreement with Korean Telecom (KT) to showcase 50 of Eros' titles on multiple digital platforms including IPTV ...

Batelco to launch broadband TV
Trade Arabia
Batelco, the leading telecom service provider in Bahrain, has announced that Internet Protocol Television (IPTV) will soon be available for Broadband customers in two newly developed areas. IPTV is arguably the most innovative product to be delivered ...

Hands-on Review: Panasonic Viera TC-P55VT30 55-inch Plasma Television‎
MarketnewsGadgetTalk (blog) - Gordon Brockhouse
Pushing the Viera Connect button on the remote takes you to the home screen of the TV's IPTV features. In terms of organization and usability, Viera Connect ...

Batelco to introduce broadband television
Gulf Daily News
Internet protocol television (IPTV) is arguably the most innovative product to be delivered for residents of the kingdom for some time and is expected to change customers' life style when it comes to watching TV. Batelco Bahrain chief executive Rashid ...

Gravity Gets $2M for US Expansion‎
Digital Media Wire - Chris Marlowe
Gravity's collaborative filtering-based recommendation system provides personalized product recommendations for IPTV, cable TV providers, e-commerce and ...