

Sept 18, 2011, Daily News

Sunday, 18 September 2011

Last Updated Sunday, 18 September 2011

IPTV ad revenue set to soar

Crikey (blog)

It's all good and well for us as viewers (and me as a TV blogger) to talk about the future of television resting with IPTV and provide anecdotal evidence of our viewing habits shifting, but it's another thing to do as All The Presidents Men taught us ...

SK Broadband gains 4460 IPTV subs in August

Telecompaper (subscription)

... attracting 376 new customers during the month. The company attracted 4460 IPTV customers, to end the month with a total of 911043 IPTV service subscribers.

Batelco to introduce broadband television

Gulf Daily News

Internet protocol television (IPTV) is arguably the most innovative product to be ... "Among the key features of the new IPTV service is user friendliness, ...

KT wins 70000 IPTV customers in August

Telecompaper (subscription)

Furthermore, KT gained 70000 IPTV customers to bring its total to 2.76 million. However, the number of Wi-Fi subscribers fell by 5000 to 235000 while the ...

MTG to launch third channel in Lithuania

Advanced Television

... Lithuanian TV households from launch, via satellite on MTG's own Viasat DTH platform, as well as through Lithuania's major cable TV and IPTV networks.

Bahrain prepares for IPTV

Rapid tv news

Bahrain's state-owned telecommunications operator Batelco is launching internet protocol television (IPTV) in the Gulf Kingdom &ndash; beginning this week in newly developed Reef Island on the northern shore of Manama. &ldquo;The delivery of digital television ...

FTTH project begins to deliver HD IPTV across Doha

Rapid tv news

A Qatar-wide high definition (HD) internet protocol TV (IPTV) service is moving ever closer with the announcement that Qtel, Qatar's state telecommunications provider, is now providing broadband services over fibre to 2000 customers. ...

GVT debuts new satellite-based pay-TV service in Brazil

FierceTelecom - Sean Buckley

GVT's new satellite-based service follows the passing of a new law that lets Brazilian telcos offer video services, including satellite and IPTV. ...