Nov. 4, 2011, Daily News

Friday, 04 November 2011
Last Updated Friday, 04 November 2011

BT IPTV growth on fast trajectory
Rapid tv news
In what has come as a surprise to the industry BT has posted strong growth for its BT Vision IPTV service, indeed the 41000 net additions were the highest for more than two years. Such growth actually outstripped BT's satellite and cable rivals Sky and ...

Miranda Reports Third Quarter 2011 Results: Revenue and Profitability at ...
MarketWatch (press release)
MONTREAL, QUEBEC, Nov 04, 2011 (MARKETWIRE via COMTEX) -- Miranda Technologies Inc. /quotes/zigman/35542 CA:MT +0.44% , a worldwide provider of infrastructure, playout and monitoring systems for the television broadcast, cable, satellite and IPTV ...

MTS Allstream Q3 revenues slide to CAD 443.2 mln
Telecompaper (subscription)
Broadband and converged IP revenues grew 12.7 percent in the third quarter, driven by strong growth in internet and IPTV. Internet revenues grew 8.3 percent ...

ICE Launches Internet Protocol Television - IPTV
Inside Costa Rica
Costa Rica's state telecom, the Instituto Costarricense de Electricidad (ICE) launched its new Internet Protocol television - IPTV - service, called 'Kölbi TV digital'. The service was launched at the Expo Telecom 2011 event currently taking place in ...

PANASONIC EXPANDS AND ENHANCES VIERA CONNECT'S IPTV PLATFORM WITH ...
 IEWY News
 The great majority of VIERA Connect apps are free to the consumer.4 Panasonic introduced its IPTV platform four years ago and in that time the internet ...

Germany move in on Mongolia
OnScreenAsia
Deutsche Welle's (DW) Director of Distribution, Petra Schneider announced that it has signed a carriage deal with Univision, the operator of the first IPTV ...

Google to trial pay-TV?
IPTV News
Google is considering trials of its own IPTV service over the fibre network it is building in Kansas City (Kansas and Missouri), according to reports in the Wall Street Journal. The reports add that Google is in discussions regarding the inclusion of ...