

Nov. 13, 2011, Daily News

Sunday, 13 November 2011

Last Updated Sunday, 13 November 2011

Google bets on OTT services to sell FTTH

Telecompaper (subscription)

This is likely to be an IPTV service, possibly similar to what Iphion is doing in the Netherlands. In Kansas, the services will compete with Time Warner ...

Telefonica reports 83000 Alice TV homes

Broadband TV News

Telefonica has reported that its German subsidiary O2 had 83000 customers to its Alice IPTV service on September 30, 2011. The operator now has a total of 2603000 DSL customers, so just 3% of those are buying the IPTV service. ...

Satellite service adds to already buoyant Telekom Entertain

Broadband TV News - Julian Clover

The rollout of satellite in Germany is part of a broad strategy by Telekom to add satellite as a supplement to its various IPTV platforms. ...

Deutsche Telekom sees solid TV growth

DigitalTVEurope.net

In its international European markets, Deutsche Telekom recorded 770000 IPTV customers by the end of September, up 39000 quarter-on-quarter and 199000 ...

Getting your arts or culture organisation onto TV

The Guardian (blog)

and since the prospect of self-broadcasting, via IPTV services like YouView, moved into view, it's got even more exciting. But the reality is that, for many arts organisations, developing a connected TV strategy is still an irrelevance.

TV growth provides some relief for Romtelecom and OTE

DigitalTVEurope.net

The figure for TV included satellite and cable customers as well as IPTV ... However, IPTV growth failed to stem a decline in ADSL subscriber in the quarter ...

Romania-Insider.com

Croatian pay-TV market takes off

Broadband TV News

... not only the IPTV platform MAXtv but also Iskon TV, an IPTV operation owned by a Hrvatski Telekom subsidiary, and Hrvatski Telekom DTH subscribers. ...

TV success, but tough times for OTE

Broadband TV News

In Romania, the latter ended September with 1208293 DTH, IPTV and cable customers, or 20.4% more than the 1003182 posted a year earlier. ...

Latin America sucks in STBs

&Irm;Advanced Television

Of the above installed total, 7.4 million serve cabled homes, 12.3 million supply DTH signals and about 820000 serve IPTV homes. Dataxis concentrates on the ...

Massive Chinese set-top box orders favour locals

Register

At this rate the Chinese market will eat up at least 6 million new devices in a single year, catapulting it close to the top of the IPTV leaderboard and giving its suppliers more and more influence, and opportunities to begin bidding overseas.

...